David Blunkett Biography:

David Blunkett Stephen Pollard, 2005 The controversial biography which was a key factor in the resignation of one of Britain's most influential and intriguing political figures now revised and updated with the full inside story Now in paperback this is the book that was flung across the chamber of the House of Commons as it became the centrepiece of battle between Tony Blair and Michael Howard David Blunkett has never been a conventional politician or personality Blind since childhood seemingly a traditional old Labour councillor in Sheffield he became Home Secretary and a key member of the Labour government How did this son of a Sheffield steel worker achieve all this And what motivates him now This fully updated biography is based on many hours of intimate conversation covering not only his early life and blindness but also life on the government front bench and his hopes for the future As you would expect Blunkett is candid in his opinions of his political allies and opponents and unsparing in his analysis of his own performance Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB's first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain's recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It's hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick's Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean's gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non-combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery

A History of 20th Century Britain Andrew Marr, 2011-12-02 Between the death of Queen Victoria and the turn of the Millennium Britain has been utterly transformed by an extraordinary century of war and peace A History of 20th Century Britain collects together for the first time Andrew Marr's two bestselling volumes A History of Modern Britain and The Making of Modern Britain Together they tell the story of how the country recovered from the grand wreckage of the British Empire only to stumble into a series of monumental upheavals from World Wars to Cold Wars and everything in between In each decade political leaders thought they knew what they were doing but found themselves confounded Every time the British people turned out to be stroprier and harder to herd than predicted This wonderfully entertaining history follows all the political and economic stories but deals too with the riotous colour of an extraordinary century a century of trenches flappers and Spitfires of comedy punks Margaret Thatcher's wonderful good luck and the triumph of shopping over idealism

A History of Modern Britain Andrew Marr, 2009-07-03 A History of Modern Britain by Andrew Marr confronts head on the victory of shopping over politics This edition also includes an extra chapter charting the course from Blair to Brexit It tells the story of how the great political visions of New Jerusalem or a second Elizabethan Age rival idealisms came to be defeated by a culture of consumerism celebrity and self gratification In each decade political leaders think they know what they are doing but find themselves confounded Every time the British people turn out to be stroprier and harder to herd than predicted Throughout Britain is a country on the edge first of invasion then of bankruptcy then on the vulnerable front line of the Cold War and later in the forefront of the great opening up of capital and migration now reshaping the world This history follows all the political and economic stories but deals too with comedy cars the war against homosexuals Sixties anarchists oil men and punks Margaret Thatcher s wonderful good luck political lies and the true heroes of British theatre

Dictionary of Labour Biography Greg Rosen,2001 A unique source of reference the Dictionary of Labour Biography brings together biographies of more than 300 individuals who have made significant contributions to the history of the Labour Party or the development of socialism in Britain

Consuming History Jerome de Groot,2016-02-08 Consuming History examines how history works in contemporary popular culture Analysing a wide range of cultural entities from computer games to daytime television it investigates the ways in which society consumes history and how a reading of this consumption can help us understand popular culture and issues of representation In this second edition Jerome de Groot probes how museums have responded to the heritage debate and how new technologies from online game playing to internet genealogy have brought about a shift in access to history discussing the often conflicted relationship between public and academic history and raising important questions about the theory and practice of history as a discipline Fully revised throughout with up to date examples from sources such as Wolf Hall Game of Thrones and 12 Years a Slave this edition also includes new sections on the historical novel gaming social media and genealogy It considers new ground breaking texts and media such as YouTube in addition to entities and practices such as re enactment that have been underrepresented in historical discussion thus far Engaging with a broad spectrum of source material and comparing the experiences of the UK the USA France and Germany as well as exploring more global trends Consuming History offers an essential path through the debates for readers interested in history cultural studies and the media

The Blunkett Tapes David Blunkett,2006 Originally recorded onto tape and now transcribed into a full narrative with the addition of David Blunkett s contemporary reflections on the political events of the past nine years The Blunkett Tapes are a rigorously honest self portrait as well as an astonishingly cogent and intimate insight into New Labour s years in power the personalities the triumphs and the debates Not only are they an unprecedented and immediate record of life in government with all its excitement and frustrations they are a testimony to the extraordinary achievements of a man born into a working class Sheffield family who though blind reached one of the highest political offices in the country David Blunkett is fascinating about the consequences of his disability and the steps he took to compensate for it as he made his way through arguably the most people sensitive business in the world The book will be as unsparing in its depiction of the events of the last year as it will be about the making of policy and the daily grind of putting it into practice from 1997 to the present day The Blunkett Tapes reveal a man and a politician passionate about making life better for people The Book Review Digest ,2005 The Tribune ,2006 Trading Information Nicholas Jones,2006 Information has always been the currency of the media world but in recent years the process whereby it reaches the media has undergone significant changes This book profiles those responsible for this change such as Benjie the Binman who makes a living from the rubbish of showbiz agents publicists and lawyers The Economist ,2005 New Statesman ,2005 The Times Index ,2007 Indexes the Times and its supplements The Guardian Index ,2003
