David in the Muslim Tradition Khaleel Mohammed,2014-12-24 In Chapter 38 21 25 the Qur an relates a very short narrative about the biblical King David s seeking and receiving God s forgiveness The earliest Muslim exegetes interpreted the qur anic verses as referring to the Hebrew Bible s story of David s adultery with Bathsheba as related in 2 Samuel 12 1 13 Later Muslims however having developed the concept of prophetic impeccability radically reinterpreted those verses to show David as innocent of any wrongdoing since in the Muslim tradition he is not only a king but a prophet as well David in the Muslim Tradition The Bathsheba Affair outlines the approach of the Qur an to shared scriptures and provides a detailed look at the development of the exegetical tradition and the factors that influenced such exegesis By establishing four distinct periods of exegesis Khaleel Mohammed examines the most famous explanations in each stratum to show the metamorphosis from blame to exculpation He shows that the Muslim development is not unique but is very much in following the Jewish and Christian traditions wherein a similar sanitization of David s image has occurred The Drama ,1917 A Woman's Place is in the House Elna Solvang,2003-05-01 Archaeological discoveries have increasingly brought to light evidence of women s involvement in the royal houses of the ancient Near East yet such evidence has not fundamentally altered the perception of monarchy as an exclusively male gendered theological political and social institution Solvang s study assembles the evidence in search of an integrated view of royal women s position and power in critical functions of monarchy challenging customary assumptions about women s place in the royal harem The historical information serves as a backdrop for a literary reading of biblical texts describing the royal house of Judah Attention is given to three women representing different royal positions Michal daughter Bathsheba queen mother and Athaliah queen and monarch A Content Analysis
