Guy Beiner, 2018-11-09 Forgetful Remembrance examines the paradoxes of what actually happens when communities persistently endeavour to forget inconvenient events The question of how a society attempts to obscure problematic historical episodes is addressed through a detailed case study grounded in the north eastern counties of the Irish province of Ulster where loyalist and unionist Protestants and in particular Presbyterians repeatedly tried to repress over two centuries discomfiting recollections of participation alongside Catholics in a republican rebellion in 1798 By exploring a rich variety of sources Beiner makes it possible to closely follow the dynamics of social forgetting His particular focus on vernacular historiography rarely noted in official histories reveals the tensions between professed oblivion in public and more subtle rituals of remembrance that facilitated muted traditions of forgetful remembrance which were masked by a local culture of reticence and silencing Throughout Forgetful Remembrance comparative references demonstrate the wider relevance of the study of social forgetting in Northern Ireland to numerous other cases where troublesome memories have been concealed behind a veil of supposed oblivion Golden Dreams Kevin Starr, 2011-09-09 A narrative tour de force that combines wide ranging scholarship with captivating prose Kevin Starr s acclaimed multi volume Americans and the California Dream is an unparalleled work of cultural history In this new volume Starr covers the crucial postwar period 1950 to 1963 when the California we know today first burst into prominence In a powerful blend of telling events colorful personalities and insightful analyses he brilliantly illuminates the dominant economic social and cultural forces in California in these pivotal years

Black Revolutionary Gerald Horne,2013-09-30 A leading African American Communist lawyer William L Patterson 1891 1980 was instrumental in laying the groundwork for the defeat of Jim Crow by virtue of his leadership of the Scottsboro campaign in the 1930s In this watershed biography historian Gerald Horne shows how Patterson helped to advance African American equality by fostering and leveraging international support for the movement Horne highlights key moments in Patterson s global activism his early education in the Soviet Union his involvement with the Scottsboro trials and other high profile civil rights cases of the 1930s to 1950s his 1951 We Charge Genocide petition to the United Nations and his later work with prisons and the Black Panther Party Through Patterson s story Horne examines how the Cold War affected the freedom movement with civil rights leadership sometimes disavowing African American leftists in exchange for concessions from the U S government He also probes the complex and often contradictory relationship between the Communist Party and the African American community including the impact of the FBI s infiltration of the Communist Party Drawing from government and FBI documents newspapers periodicals archival and manuscript collections and personal papers Horne documents Patterson s effectiveness at carrying the freedom struggle into the global arena and provides a fresh perspective on twentieth century struggles for racial justice

A Soaring Eagle Peter D. Groenewegen,1998 Theorist practitioner educator and arguably the father of professional economics Alfred Marshall s life and career have long required a full scale biography to put his work into context and reveal the extent of his influence Peter Groenewegen s outstanding new book places the major features of Marshall's life and work within the rich institutional setting of late nineteenth and early twentieth century Britain. This biography sheds new light on Marshall's decision to study economics after dropping mathematics, philosophy, and psychology in turn, and the background to his important books including the Principles of Economics as well as his government advice over three decades. More than just the life of a major economist, it also deals with economics and mathematics education at Cambridge, contemporary controversies over socialism, imperialism, free trade, eugenics, religious belief, social welfare, and the women's movement. As the first biography of Alfred Marshall, A Soaring Eagle contributes to the history of economics, the social sciences, and education while also offering a series of insights into Victorian and Edwardian society.

Compassion and Protest, 1991     Texas Environmental Almanac Texas Center for Policy Studies, 2000. From reviews of the first edition: Nowhere else have the facts presented here ever been assembled in one place before. This book ought to be placed in every library and newspaper office in the state. Still more it could find a place in the high schools and universities in several courses: history, geography, government, environmental studies. Texas Observer: Here is an environmental map of Texas for all concerned citizens and policymakers. Compiled by the Texas Center for Policy Studies, this almanac provides crucial and comprehensive information on the state's land, air, water, energy use, and waste generation gathered from a wide range of state and federal agencies, environmental organizations, and historical and scientific reference sources. The almanac is designed for quick, easy reference by the public as well as by scientists and government officials and policymakers. Extensively updated since the first edition, it addresses such key issues as the quantity and quality of the state's environmental resources, present rates of consumption, and future levels of demand. This vital baseline information will help all Texans understand the current condition of our state's environmental health and plan for our future environmental well-being.
