David Sterne:

Nation: The Play Mark Ravenhill, Terry Pratchett, 2012-03-31 Following the National Theatre's success with plays based on novels by well-loved children's writers like Philip Pullman's His Dark Materials, Jamila Gavin's Coram Boy and Michael Morpurgo's War Horse, the National now stages Mark Ravenhill's exhilarating adaptation of Terry Pratchett's witty and challenging adventure story in a major Christmas production for 2009. A parallel world 1860. Two teenagers thrown together by a tsunami that has destroyed Mau's village and left Daphne shipwrecked on his South Pacific island thousands of miles from home. One wears next to nothing, the other a long white dress, neither speaks the other's language, somehow they must learn to survive. As starving refugees gather, Daphne delivers a baby, milks a pig, brews beer and does battle with a mutineer. Mau fights cannibals, Raiders discover the world is round and questions the reality of his tribe's fiercely patriarchal gods. Together they come of age, overseen by a foul-mouthed parrot as they discard old doctrine to forge a new Nation. The Kaleidoscope British Christmas Television Guide 1937-2013 Chris Perry, 2016-02-03 A Guide to British television programmes shown at Christmas time throughout the years. Past and Present of the City of Quincy and Adams County, Illinois William Herzog Collins, Cicero F. Perry, 1905. Wills of Rappahannock County, Virginia 1656-1692 William Montgomery Sweeny, 2009-06 Mr Webb's Sussex County directory is divided into three parts. The first part, comprising fully half the book, gives a historical overview of Sussex County: eminent Sussex pioneers, the establishment of the county courthouse and so forth. The historical narrative then moves on to each of the county's fourteen townships, from Andover through Wantage, delineating milestones, landmarks and famous episodes in the lives of the townships. Part 2 constitutes the directory itself, which is arranged by township and lists the name of each freeholder with his village living in Sussex County at the time of the volume's original publication in 1872. In all, some 5,000 freeholders can be found in the directory. History of the First Regiment Infantry, National Guard of Pennsylvania (Grey Reserves) 1861-1911 James William Latta, 1912. Virginia County Records William Armstrong Crozier, 1909. The Glazebrooks succeeded in extracting those documents pertaining to Hanover County that survived the burning of Richmond in April 1865 and that were not published in William Ronald Cocke's Hanover County Chancery Wills and Notes. The surviving materials consist of a great many deeds, wills, inventories, accounts, letters, depositions, etc. pertaining to Hanover County for the colonial and early Federal periods. Many of the suits, in particular, stem from the period prior to the French and Indian War. One of the richest sources examined by the Glazebrooks were the files of the United States District Court at Richmond. With references to nearly 5,000 early inhabitants of Hanover County, this hard-to-find sourcebook will unquestionably be in great demand among researchers. Private and Fictional Words (Routledge Revivals) Coral Ann Howells, 2014-08-07. First published in 1987, this is an introductory study of the most widely read Canadian women novelists of the 1970s and 1980s. At its centre lies the question of how the search for a distinctive cultural identity relates to the need for a national cultural identity in the post-colonial era. Coral Ann Howells argues that Canadian women's fiction throughout the period of study represents how the Canadian cultural identity exceeds its geographical limits and those traditional structures of patriarchal authority need revision if women's alternative views are to be taken into account. Including short biographical sketches and a complete list of the books published by the authors under discussion, writers examined include Margaret Atwood, Alice Munro, and Margaret Laurence. The Sons of the American Revolution magazine, 1927. Virginia Colonial Abstracts Beverley Fleet, 1988. In this reprint edition the contents of the original 34 volumes have been rearranged, re-typed, and consolidated in three hardcover volumes, each with its own master index. Sammy has an idyllic boyhood in Limassol with his glamorous hippy parents and his sister. They live a sixties louche lifestyle. Sammy's earliest memories are of visitors sleeping outside under the stars, smoking joints, and getting drunk on rum and cocktails. Then overnight his life is changed by two tragedies that will remain intertwined in his mind for ever. He is forced to leave Limassol and is sent to an austere English boarding school. There Sammy meets Rajiv, a young diligent scholar from the West Indies. The two form an unlikely friendship. Rajiv tempers the rebellious streak that the damaged Sammy has developed, and in years to come that friendship will once more dramatically alter the course of Sammy's life as he is eventually forced to face the demons that have led him to his self-imposed exile. Annual Report of the Factory Inspectors of Illinois Illinois.
