Day By Day With Shelagh Brown:

Day by Day with Shelagh Brown David Winter, Shelagh Brown, 1998-01-01 Memoirs of a Fat Bastard Chris Gibson, 2010-07-01 Chris Gibson is one fat drunk angry bastard He s tried every diet Atkins South Beach Pritikin Problem is he still can t get his pants on in the morning And he got none of the genes of his movie star brother Mel In his early 40s with a job he hates and a lifestyle that is killing him Chris is having more than a mid life crisis He s having a life and death crisis Memoirs of a Fat Bastard is a bittersweet account of how a middle aged man on the road to destruction turned his life and health around on his own terms It s a telling and frequently hilarious story of the ways in which some men can lose their way and the way back to finding meaning and happiness amid the competing pressures of being provider family man and all round good Aussie bloke On Radji Beach Ian W. Shaw, 2010-09-01 When Singapore fell dramatically to the Japanese on 15 February 1942 hundreds of people scrambled to the docks to flee Amongst the evacuees were 65 Australian nurses who boarded a coastal freighter named the Vyner Brooke They only made it as far as the waters off Muntok Island near Sumatra There Japanese bombers sank the small ship Those who survived the sinking drifted for up to three days before making landfall on one of the many beaches on Muntok A group of about 60 shipwreck survivors including 22 nurses gathered at Radji Beach They voted to surrender to the Japanese rather than slowly starve to death but the Japanese patrol that found them did not accept their surrender Instead it divided the Europeans into three groups and killed them all in turn The Australian nurses were in the third group and 21 of them died in a hail of bullets as they walked abreast into the sea Miraculously there was one survivor Vivian Bullwinkel who brought the truth about this appalling atrocity to light and who went on to experience the internment camps starvation and disease that took away many of her friends On Radji Beach tells the story of the 65 nurses from the Vyner Brooke their service in Singapore and on the Malay peninsula their desperate voyage to escape capture by the Japanese and their courage compassion ingenuity and fortitude in the unthinkable events that followed Women Interned in World War Two Sumatra Barbara Coombes, 2022-08-25 Thousands of women and children were among those who struggled to leave Singapore just before capitulation on February 15 1942 their hope was to reach safety For many that hope was never realised countless numbers drowned as ships were bombed and sunk on their way to safety The lucky ones who survived the onslaught of the ships would become guests of the Japanese many of these would not live to see the end of the war Two very different women fleeing on those last ships and subsequently interned in camps throughout Sumatra were Margaret Dryburgh a missionary and teacher and Shelagh Brown a secretary at the Singapore Naval Base Their paths crossed briefly prior to the catastrophic events of 1942 and met again in internment The Captives Hymn composed by Margaret Dryburgh was initially sung by herself along with Shelagh Brown and friend Dorothy MacLeod on 5 July 1942 It has since been sung at services throughout internment and continues to be sung at services all over the world Music and faith were fundamental to both their lives and Margaret s creative talents lifted the spirits of everyone during those dark and difficult days In a remarkable partnership when the women were struggling to find something new that would lift their flagging spirits Margaret and fellow internee Norah Chambers produced a Vocal Orchestra using women s voices in place of instruments The first performance stunned the entire camp they had never heard anything so beautiful and momentarily made them feel that they were free and floating away with the music This true account using personal diaries and family documents traces Margaret Dryburgh and Shelagh Brown s journey from childhood through to adulthood and internment Early life shapes adult life and perhaps contributed to their response to captivity which showed courage tenacity perseverance and surprisingly given the appalling conditions a good deal of humour May the Day of Freedom Dawn Lovely Day Barbara Redmayne,1988 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2000
