A Dissent On Bonhoeffer:

A Dissent on Bonhoeffer David Henry Hopper, 1975 Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Ethics of Formation Ryan Huber, 2020-05-19 Dietrich Bonhoeffer is many things to many people committed pacifist reluctant revolutionary Protestant saint but in Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Ethics of Formation Ryan Huber argues that Bonhoeffer should be engaged as a Christian ethicist of formation Huber demonstrates that formation lies at the heart of Bonhoeffer's ethical project and personal story providing a third way between virtue and character ethics in contemporary Christian thought concerned with moral growth

Pacifism, Just War, and Tyrannicide David M. Gides, 2012-03-02 Dietrich Bonhoeffer's perplexing and controversial shift from admitted pacifism to tyrannicide has been the source of scholarly and popular inspiration and criticism How could an admitted Christian pacifist be involved in a plot to assassinate a political figure Is there a way to understand and explain this phenomenon comprehensive enough to encompass all relevant data One that takes into account the nuances of Bonhoeffer's theology and all of the elements of his complex historical and personal contexts This study attempts to offer an explanation by linking Bonhoeffer's political thinking and action with his understanding of the church world relationship and by evaluating the changes in that thought action dyad as his life progressed What emerges is a portrait of a bold and visionary thinker and political agent whose church world theology while discontinuous is consistent enough to be authentic and yet flexible enough to meet the extraordinary challenges presented by Nazism and its intrusion into the churches Gides suggests that it is actually Bonhoeffer's malleable church world thinking that ultimately distinguishes him from his theological and ecclesial contemporaries and even from the mass of German church persons and citizenry it allowed him to confront evil by reaching beyond the constraints of traditional Lutheran thinking

The Living Church, 1976 Bonhoeffer's Ethic of Discipleship Kenneth Earl Morris, 1986 This is the first book to focus on the ethic that Dietrich Bonhoeffer constructed during the 1930s an ethic he crafted while playing a key role in Christian resistance to Nazism and an ethic still inspiring politically active Christians The ethic of discipleship this study argues represents a reworking of the Christian faith so that it becomes actively opposed to totalitarianism This book therefore adds a significant dimension to the published record concerning the German theologian and pastor executed in 1945 for conspiring to assassinate Hitler and overthrow the Third Reich Since an ethic reflects more than a cognitive assent and has emotional and experiential dimensions the author's approach is socio psychological drawing on the large documentary record of Bonhoeffer's family relations Reductionism however is rejected in this book which gives social psychology parity but not superiority in understanding Bonhoeffer's religious quest and political dialogue

Politics in Friendship: A Theological Account Guido de Graaff, 2014-09-25 Guido de Graaff explores the political dimension and significance of friendship arguing that its specific contribution lies not only in its theological approach but also in its particular focus distinguishing the political from the social and or civic The book's explorations are framed around a particular story of friendship the story of Bishop George Bell and German theologian

Dietrich Bonhoeffer Drawing on Hannah Arendt and Oliver O Donovan de Graaff argues that Bell and Bonhoeffer s story can be read as one of friends assuming the responsibility of political judgment in an emergency situation their story casts doubts on secular politics as the primary context for interpreting the friends judgments Thus the book provides a more comprehensive account of the story also interpreting it against the background of the life of the church with special attention to John 15 and Romans 12 De Graaff concludes by showing how a theological account is vital for discerning the distinct politics of the church including opportunities for Christian engagement in secular politics What Would Bonhoeffer Say? Al Staggs,2019-01-29 The story of Dietrich Bonhoeffer pastor and theologian is the story of a man who spoke as a prophet to a German church that was more concerned with her own security than she was with doing the work of God in the midst of oppression and human need This pastor prisoner challenged the typical expressions of popular Christian piety a piety that denied the reality of injustice toward innocent people namely Jews Bonhoeffer compels us to struggle with him regarding the nature and expression of Christian faithfulness in the context of horrifying injustice One of his most important contributions to theology and to our understanding of contemporary discipleship came as a result of his experiences as a prisoner of the Gestapo from April 1943 until his death by hanging on April 9 1945 During his incarceration he learned what it meant to view life history and scripture from what he termed the view from below from the perspective of the outcasts the suspects the maltreated the powerless the reviled In short from the perspective of those who suffer Dietrich Bonhoeffer s testimony in word and deed continues to influence people all over the world His witness has drawn praise from leading theologians and philosopher alike After Bonhoeffer s death his close friend and biographer Eberhard Bethge said of him When he was silenced for good at age 39 he began to speak more loudly than ever before Union Seminary Quarterly Review ,1975

A Theology of Life Ralf K. Wüstenberg,1998 German scholar Ralf K Wustenberg in A Theology of Life examines Dietrich Bonhoeffer s vision of a religionless Christianity tracing its philosophical and theological roots and detecting its implications and timeliness for today s generation o Christian Ethics in Ecumenical Context Shin Chiba,George R. Hunsberger,Lester Edwin J. Ruiz,1995 Resist! Michael G. Long,2014-07-30 Chicago Theological Seminary Register ,1975 The Ecumenical Review ,1976 Dante to Dead Man Walking Raymond A. Schroth,2001 What do the book of Genesis the Second Inaugural Address and The Autobiography of Malcolm X all have in common According to Schroth they are all works worthy of being called classics of Christian literature In Dante to DEAD MAN WALKING Schroth discusses fifty works from books of the Old Testament to contemporary works that challenge the social conscience and raise moral and religious issues in a provocative way Horizons ,1976 The Journal of Religion ,1976 The Chicago Theological Seminary Register Chicago Theological Seminary,1973 Alumni directory issue 1859 1951 v 44 no 4 v 45 no 1 Book Review Digest ,2008 Technology, Theology, and the Idea of Progress David Henry Hopper,1991 Christ in Practice Clive Marsh,2006 In 1944 Dietrich Bonhoeffer asked Who is Christ for us today In this theologically informed and very practical exploration of what it means to live in Christ Clive Marsh seeks to answer Bonhoeffer's question in a way that is appropriate for the 21st Century Christ in Practice refuses to locate Christ solely in the Church but finds him in the midst of contemporary life especially in the complex ethical challenges of daily living Clive Marsh considers how Christ is present today and invites us to reflect on how communal human interaction can be informed and transformed through attempting to understand this question In the process he considers how Christ and the Church relate today highlighting the decisive role to be played by the Church in society and the humility with which it needs to fulfil its task Clive Marsh argues that the point of Christology and of Christianity itself is not to interpret Christ but to live within Christ and to do so without being consumed by Church It is a passionate plea for Christians to remain faithful to a commitment to Christ as present and active in the world
