Hughes, 1904      Peace in Ukraine Jacques Baud, 2026-02-24 Peace in Ukraine offers a factual analysis of the diplomatic and political dynamics of the Ukrainian conflict. It deals in particular with the evolution of the negotiation process between Ukraine and Russia since 2014. It looks back at the various peace initiatives proposed by the players in the conflict and analyzes the reasons why they were unsuccessful as well as the elements that could be included in a future treaty. It deciphers the sometimes tense relations between Western countries, the role of the United States, the position of the protagonists and their stakes in this conflict. As the war enters its fifth year, the idea of negotiation takes hold. Will the Russians and Ukrainians reach an agreement in 2026? Will the United States be able to impose its diplomatic dynamic on a divided Europe? What factors will determine a political solution?

Nouveau dictionnaire national, ou: Dictionnaire universel de la langue française Bescherelle (Aîné), 1890      Gender, Taste, and Material Culture in Britain and North America, 1700-1830 John Styles, Amanda Vickery, 2006 Between 1700 and 1830 men and women in the English speaking territories framing the Atlantic gained unprecedented access to material things. The British Atlantic was an empire of goods held together not just by political authority and a common language but by a shared material culture nourished by constant flows of commodities. Diets expanded to include exotic luxuries such as tea and sugar, the fruits of mercantile and colonial expansion. Homes were furnished with novel goods like clocks and earthenware teapots, the products of British industrial ingenuity. This groundbreaking book compares these developments in Britain and North America, bringing together a multi-disciplinary group of scholars to consider basic questions about women, men, and objects in these regions. In asking who did the shopping, how things were used, and why they became the subject of political dispute, the essays show the profound significance of everyday objects in the eighteenth century Atlantic world.
