Clayton, Laura Mulvey, 2017-06-30 The 1970s was an enormously creative period for experimental film. Its innovations and debates have had far-reaching and long-lasting influence, with a resurgence of interest in the decade revealed by new gallery events, film screenings, and social networks that recognise its achievements. Professor Laura Mulvey and writer-director Sue Clayton bring together journalists and scholars at the cutting edge of research into 1970s radical cinema for this collection. Chapters are at once historically grounded yet fused with the current analysis of today's generation of cinephiles to rediscover a unique moment for extraordinary film production. Other Cinemas establishes the factors that helped to shape alternative film, world cinema, and internationalism; the politics of cultural policy and arts funding; new accessible technologies; avant-garde theories; and the development of a dynamic and interactive relationship between film and its audiences. Exploring and celebrating the work of The Other Cinema the London Film Makers Co-op and other cornerstones of today's film culture, as well as the impact of creatives such as William Raban and Stephen Dwoskin, and Mulvey and Clayton themselves, this important book takes account of a wave of socially aware film practice without which today's activist, queer, minority, and feminist voices would have struggled to gather such volume. Someone wants Alyce Hythe dead. Shunned from London society for being the daughter of England's most notorious spy, Alyce Hythe desires only to clear her father's name. For years she has been hidden away from all prying eyes, given a new identity and told to forget who she was. But strange things have been happening, causing old rumors to once more be whispered. Long has Lord Julian Casvelyn lived with guilt brought on when his brother was murdered by England's most infamous traitor. But one eventful night has changed everything. Lord Julian believed about his brother's death. Never did he suspect the woman he has just saved from certain harm is the daughter of that man. Now Julian is caught in the midst of a conspiracy and desire for that woman. Thrown together by fate, the two search for answers long denied them, and along the way discover a love that can free them both. [The Holy Bible, ed. by T.K. Cheyne \[and others. A.V.\]](#).
