Daughters Sout Male:

The Widows' Might Vivian Bruce Conger,2009-03-01 In early American society one s identity was determined in large part by gender The ways in which men and women engaged with their communities were generally not equal married women fell under the legal control of their husbands who handled all negotiations with the outside world as well as many domestic interactions The death of a husband enabled women to transcend this strict gender divide Yet as a widow a woman occupied a third liminal gender in early America performing an unusual mix of male and female roles in both public and private life With shrewd analysis of widows wills as well as prescriptive literature court appearances newspaper advertisements and letters The Widows Might explores how widows were portrayed in early American culture and how widows themselves responded to their unique role Using a comparative approach Vivian Bruce Conger deftly analyzes how widows in colonial Massachusetts South Carolina and Maryland navigated their domestic legal economic and community roles in early American society

The Sociology of South Asian Women's Health Sara Rizvi Jafree,2020-08-06 This contributed volume is the first known collection of essays that brings together scholarly review critiques and primary and secondary data to assess how sociocultural factors influence health behavior in South Asian women The essays are authored by working scholars or healthcare practitioners from Bangladesh India and Pakistan In the chapters the contributors acknowledge social economic and environmental factors to recommend improved interventions and health policy for women of the region Studies on South Asian women s health have targeted clinical evidence with less attention on social and environmental factors driving health recovery and health outcomes The South Asian region more than any other part of the world is driven by traditional and cultural forces that are possibly the most significant factors determining a woman s health awareness and her rights to adopt healthy behavior or pursue health recovery Women of the region share a common culture and political history and there are benefits to understanding their problems collectively in order to design joint improvements in health policy for women Salient but neglected socio political areas that influence health behavior and health outcomes in women of the region are covered in the chapters including Oral Narrations of Social Rejection Suffered by South Asian Women with Irreversible Health Conditions Women s Role in Decision Making for Health Care in South Asia Poverty Health Coverage and Credit Opportunities for South Asian Women Refugee Displaced and Climate Affected Women of South Asia and Their Health Challenges The Political Sociology of South Asian Women s Health The Sociology of South Asian Women s Health is a useful resource for students researchers and academicians especially those interested in public health gender social policy and occupational management as well as healthcare practitioners administrators health and public policy makers government officers and scholars of South Asian studies

Hagar's Daughter Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins,2020-12-15 Hagar s Daughter is Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins s first serial novel published in the Boston based Colored American Magazine 1901 02 The novel features concealed and mistaken identities dramatic revelations and extraordinary plot twists including a high profile murder trial an abduction plot and a steady succession of surprises as the young black maid Venus Johnson assumes male clothing to solve a series of mysteries Because Hagar s Daughter demonstrates Hopkins s keen sense of history use of multiple literary genres emphasis on gender roles and political engagement it provides the perfect introduction to the author and her era In the appendices to this Broadview Edition advertising other writing by Hopkins and her contemporaries and reviews situate the work within the popular literature and political culture of its time

Agrarian Elites Enrico Dal Lago,2005-11-01
Between 1815 and 1861 American slaveholders and southern Italian landowners presided over the economic and social life of two predominantly agricultural regions the U S South and Italy s Mezzogiorno Enrico Dal Lago ingeniously compares these agrarian elites demonstrating how the study of each enhances our understanding of the other as well as of their shared nineteenth century world Agrarian Elites charts the parallel developments of plantations and latifondi in relation to changes in the world economy At the same time it examines the spread of paternalistic models of family relations and of slave and free labor management that accompanied the rise of large groups of American slaveholders and southern Italian landed proprietors in the early to mid 1800s According to Dal Lago the most articulate and enlightened members of both elites combined the pursuit of profit with the implementation of modern contractual practices in dealing with their workforces Both elites also used their economic and social power for political advantage opposing the intervention of their national governments in local affairs The search for ever better protection of their respective interests in slaveholding and landed property led ultimately to their support for the creation of two nations the Confederate States of America and the Kingdom of Italy both in 1861 Dal Lago brings together two subjects that have generated considerable debate and research systems of slave and nominally free labor and the elites who employed them and nineteenth century nationalism With its pathbreaking approach and singular and comparative insights Agrarian Elites will inform not only American and Italian studies but also the very practice of comparative history

The Economics of Gender in Mexico Elizabeth G. Katz, Maria Cecilia Correia,2001-01-01 Extrait de la couverture Mexico has witnessed major demographic social and economic changes since the 1960s In this context the distinct roles of men and women have also changed as exemplified by female labor force participation which almost tripled in the second half of the 20th century However traditional gender roles continue to constrain men s and women s opportunities and well being in Mexico The book examines these issues from a life cycle and economic perspective It looks at the way traditional gender roles shape male and female economic activities and outcomes beginning with school age children and their education patterns continuing with the labor force participation of adults in rural and urban areas and ending with the situation of elderly men and women The book contains new material on changes in the maquiladora sector which has historically provided important work opportunities for women as well as the distinct impact of ejido reform on rural men and women

Daughter of the Revolution Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins, 2007 Pauline E Hopkins 1859 1930 came to prominence in the early years of the twentieth century as an outspoken writer editor and critic Frequently recognized for her first novel Contending Forces she is currently one of the most widely read and studied African American novelists from that period While nearly all of Hopkins's fiction remains in print there is very little of her nonfiction available This reader brings together dozens of her hard to find essays including longer nonfiction works such as Famous Men of the Negro Race and The Dark Races of the Twentieth Century some of which are published here for the first time in their entirety Through these works along with two juvenile essays from the 1870s a personal letter and two speeches readers encounter a voice that is committed to constructing an international discourse on race recovering the militant abolitionist tradition to combat Jim Crow celebrating black political participation during and after the Reconstruction era articulating the connections between race and labor and insisting on equal rights for women Hopkins's writing will challenge contemporary scholars to rethink their understanding of black activism and modernity in the early twentieth century

Gender, Ethnicity, and Landed Property in Albania Susana Lastarria-Cornhiel, Rachel Wheeler, 1998 The Encyclopædia Britannica, 1905 List of Monumental Brasses, Remaining in the County of Suffolk, 1903 Edmund Farrer, 1903 African Immigrants in Contemporary Spanish Texts Debra Faszler-McMahon, Victoria L. Ketz, 2016-03-09 Around the turn of 21st Century Spain welcomed more than six million foreigners many of them from various parts of the African continent How African immigrants represent themselves and are represented in contemporary Spanish texts is the subject of this interdisciplinary collection Analyzing blogs films translations and literary works by contemporary authors including Donato Ndongo Equatorial Guinea Abderrahman El Fathi Morocco Chus Guti rrez Spain Juan Bonilla Spain and Bahia Mahmud Awah Western Sahara the contributors interrogate how Spanish cultural texts represent idealize or sympathize with the plight of immigrants as well as the ways in which immigrants themselves represent Spain and Spanish culture At the same time these works shed light on issues related to Spain's racial ethnic and sexual boundaries the appeal of images of Africa in the contemporary marketplace and the role of Spain's economic crisis in shaping attitudes towards immigration Taken together the essays are a convincing reminder that cultural texts provide a mirror into the perceptions of a society during times of change
