David Park Nancy Boas, 2012-03-17 In this beautifully illustrated biography compiled from comprehensive and sweeping interviews Nancy Boas traces Park's resolute search for a new kind of figuration one that would penetrate abstract expressionism's thickly layered surfaces and infuse them with human presence

David Park: A Retrospective Janet Bishop, 2019-05-28 This generously illustrated volume is the first comprehensive publication devoted to the powerfully expressive work of David Park 1911-60 Best known as the founder of Bay Area Figurative art Park moved from Boston to California at the age of seventeen and spent most of his adult life in and around San Francisco In the immediate postwar years like many avant garde American artists he engaged with Abstract Expressionism and painted non objectively In a moment of passion in 1949 he made the radical decision to abandon nearly all of his abstract canvases at the Berkeley city dump and return to the human figure in so doing marking the beginning of the Bay Area Figurative movement The astonishingly powerful paintings he made in the decade that followed brought together his long held interest in classic subjects such as portraiture domestic interiors musicians rowers and bathers with lush gestural paint handling and an extraordinary sense of color In 1958-59 Park reached his expressive peak reveling in the sensuous qualities of paint to create intensely physical psychologically charged and deeply felt canvases This fertile period cut short by illness in 1960 Park transferred his creative energy to other mediums when he could no longer work on canvas In the last months of his life bedridden he produced an extraordinary thirty foot long felt tip pen scroll and a poignant series of gouaches Published to accompany the first major museum exhibition of Park's work in more than thirty years David Park A Retrospective traces the full arc of the artist's career from his early social realist and cubist inspired efforts of the 1930s to his mature figurative
