

David and Goliath

In the neighbouring land lived a people called the Philistines. They did not worship the true God. The Philistines gathered an army and decided to attack the people of Israel. The Israelites gathered an army and went to defend their country.

The Philistines camped on one hill. The Israelites camped on another. A valley lay between the two armies.

The Philistines had a soldier named Goliath. Goliath was very big and very strong. In fact, he was a giant!

Goliath would go into the valley between the two armies every day. "Why do you not come and fight us?" He would shout. "Choose a man to come down and fight me. If I kill him, you will be servants to my people. If he kills me, the Philistines will be servants to your people. I defy you all. Send a man to fight me."

Saul and all his soldiers were unhappy.

Jesse's three oldest sons were a part of Saul's army, but David was not.

Forty days passed. Every day, Goliath would shout and say, "Send a man to fight me."

One day, David was delivering some food. He was talking to his brothers when he heard Goliath shouting. The Israelites were very afraid of Goliath, and even though Saul had offered a reward to whomever killed him, no one would face him in battle.
