the Manish Boys a few of his early bands David Bowie was and still is a fully formed timeless pop artist Although he always experimented and changed stylistically he seems to have simply burst into this world as Ziggy Stardust Aladdin Sane the Thin White Duke David Bowie and finally just Mr Jones all rolled into one He is a shimmering chimera changing to reflect what we hope to find and what we don't expect to find the romantic troubadour the glammed outer space messiah the burnt out case from another world the sophisticated world weary philosopher the aging artist facing his own mortality David Bowie's best known and most groundbreaking character is Ziggy Stardust If the trappings of Ziggy Stardust glam androgyn are stripped away what we have left is simply great pop music The gender smashing concept of Ziggy as stimulating and some would say as freeing for society as it was isn't a bolt out of the blue for us today as it was then What survives is the music So the sociological effect of David Bowie's depiction of gender with his character Ziggy Stardust isn't his most valuable contribution to pop music The music is Besides his popular success part of why David Bowie is such a great contributor to late 20th century rock and roll is that the answer to who or what David Bowie is is a reflection of who we are Like all great artists he shows us aspects of our own imaginations And in an uncanny way he has always managed to presage certain trends or events at a time when Western pop culture was changing in a way that in hindsight seems inevitable At any given time the shape of the future is unknown An obvious observation but one that needs restating in order to place ourselves more fully in the shoes of those who came before us In 2004 Rolling Stone put David Bowie at number 39 on its 100 Greatest Artists of All Time list His friend and sometime collaborator Lou Reed commented that he has a melodic sense that is just way above anyone else in rock and roll Listen to just a few of his songs and it becomes obvious that he is a great songwriter as well as a great performer Space Oddity Changes Ziggy Stardust Life on Mars Young Americans Fame Sound and Vision Heroes Let's Dance His music varies so much over the years from the English music hall style of some of the songs on the 1967 album David Bowie to the American soul style of Young Americans to the euro rock post punk sounds of the Berlin Trilogy Heroes Low and Lodger to mainstream hits of the 80s Let's Dance and Modern Love to his late career jazz influenced song Bring Me the Disco King Despite the fact that he has varied his approach stylistically Bowie explains his approach to his subject matter in this YouTube video of a Danish interview given at the start of his A Reality Tour of 2003 He has returned to the same themes throughout his life loneliness isolation abandonment spirituality and the lack thereof He tells the interviewer that he is fundamentally the same person that he was a teenager except that he is three and a half inches taller According to Bowie he has shifted his perspective but not his artistic preoccupations buy the book to read more David Bowie , David Bowie Gareth Thomas,2011-12-16 Perhaps the most original artist of his generation David Rober Jones aka David Bowie aka Ziggy Stardust aka Aladdin Sane has reinvented himself many times over in a career spanning five decades whilst being awarded numerous Platinum Gold and Silver albums in both the UK and USA David Bowie: Life on Mars Ziggy Watson,2019-04-11 DAVID BOWIE LIFE ON MARS A David Bowie Biography Whenever one looks back on the life of musician
