Constitution Of Capital Essays On Volume 1 Of Marxs Capital:

The Constitution of Capital R. Bellofiore, N. Taylor, 2004-03-25 The essays in this collection address specific themes in Volume I of Marx's Capital. Although the essays can be read independently they present complementary perspectives on issues at the cutting edge of recent scholarship on Marx's work. Although all Parts of Capital I are discussed the book is not intended to be a textbook. It will be read by specialists in the field as well as graduate students in the history of economic thought, political economy and philosophy.

Essays on Marx's Capital Geert Reuten, 2024-05-13 In this book Geert Reuten presents 21 of his previously published essays on the three volumes of Marx's Capital dating from 1991 to 2019. The essays largely take the form of a summary of Marx's text a Volume or its Parts or Chapters followed by an appreciation and when required a reconstruction. The book thus offers an overview of each of the three volumes of Capital including their interconnection as well as a focus on specific Parts of Capital. Throughout the general overviews and more focused analyses Reuten emphasises Marx's systematic dialectical method and his monetary value form analysis.

Marx's Capital: An Unfinishable Project?, 2018-04-10 For almost 150 years scholars have been debating how to interpret Marx's seminal work Capital while they had access to just some of Marx's economic manuscripts. This changed in 2013 with the publication of all the known economic writings of Marx and Engels in the Marx Engels Gesamtausgabe MEGA. One can now reconstruct the lines of intellectual development and one can also explore in detail how Friedrich Engels went about compiling volumes II and III of Capital from the vast legacy of manuscripts that Marx left behind after his death in 1883. It should be possible now to develop a more comprehensive and accurate picture of Marx as an economic theoretician. This volume of essays aims to initiate this process. Contributors are Christopher J. Arthur, Matthias Bohlender, Timm Graumann, Jorge Grespan, Gerald Hubmann, Heinz D. Kurz, Marcel van der Linden, Kenji Mori, Fred Moseley, Lucia Pradella, Geert Reuten, Regina Roth and Carl Erich Vollgraf.

The Spectre of Capital: Idea and Reality Christopher J. Arthur, 2022-07-18 What is money? What is capital? The Spectre of Capital tackles such fundamental questions at a deep philosophical level. It argues that the modern world is ruled by a spectre, the spectre of capital. This insight is rooted in an original combination of the ideas of Marx and Hegel. It presents the most sophisticated argument to date for the homology thesis, namely that the order of Hegel's logical categories and that of the social forms addressed by Marx's Capital share the same architectonic. The systematic dialectical presentation shows how capital becomes a self-sustaining power.

Marx's Capital and Hegel's Logic, 2014-04-17 This book provides a wide ranging and in depth reappraisal of the relation between Marx's economic theory in Capital and Hegel's Logic by leading Marxian economists and philosophers from around the world. The subjects dealt with include systematic dialectics, the New Dialectics, materialism vs idealism, Marx's inversion of Hegel, Hegel's Concept, logic, universality, particularity, singularity, Hegel's Essence, logic, essence, appearance, Marx's levels of abstraction of capital in general and competition and capital as Hegelian Subject. The papers in this volume were originally presented at the 22nd annual meeting of the International

Symposium on Marxian Theory at Mount Holyoke College in August 2011 The twelve authors are divided between seven economists and five philosophers as is fitting for the interdisciplinary subject of the relation between Marx's economic theory and Hegel's logic Contributors are Chris Arthur Riccardo Bellofiore Roberto Fineschi Gast n Caligaris Igor Hanzel Juan I igo Carrera Mark Meaney Fred Moseley Patrick Murray Geert Reuten Mario Robles Tony Smith and Guido Starosta Marx's Capital, Method and Revolutionary Subjectivity Guido Starosta,2015-11-24 In Marx's Capital Method and Revolutionary Subjectivity Guido Starosta develops a materialist inquiry into the social and historical determinations of revolutionary subjectivity Through a methodologically minded critical reconstruction of the Marxian critique of political economy from the early writings up to the Grundrisse and Capital this study shows that the outcome of the historical movement of the objectified form of social mediation which has turned into the very alienated subject of social life i e capital is to develop as its own immanent determination the constitution of the self abolishing working class as a revolutionary subject A crucial element in this intellectual endeavour is the focus on the intrinsic connection between the specifically dialectical form of social science and its radical transformative content Marx's Temporalities Massimiliano Tomba,2012-11-09 The book rethinks key categories of Marx's work beyond any philosophy of history showing how the plurality of temporal layers that are combined and come into conflict in the violently unifying historical dimension of modernity are central to Marx's thought

How Language Informs Mathematics Dirk Damsma,2019-11-11 In How Language Informs Mathematics Dirk Damsma shows how Hegel's and Marx's systematic dialectical analysis of mathematical and economic language helps us understand the structure and nature of mathematical and capitalist systems More importantly Damsma shows how knowledge of the latter can inform model assumptions and help improve models His book provides a blueprint for an approach to economic model building that does away with arbitrarily chosen assumptions and is sensitive to the institutional structures of capitalism In light of the failure of mainstream economics to understand systemic failures like the financial crisis and given the arbitrary character of most assumptions in mainstream models such an approach is desperately needed Journal of Economic Literature ,2014 American Book Publishing Record ,2004 Hitotsubashi Journal of Economics ,2004
