Questions of Poetics Barrett Watten, 2016-07 Object Lessons Subject Formations Notes Bibliography Index Music, the Avant-Garde, and Counterculture Anabela Duarte, 2024-12-01 This book studies how the complex relationship between music the avant garde and counterculture challenges all sorts of boundaries By exploring the avant garde as a thoughtful inquiry into experimentation creativity and originality we bring to the fore the invisible republics of culture the ephemeral the suppressed and the unconformity of artistic and political undercurrents Avant garde and experimental art are international in scope and their trajectory as we see it has been to expand themselves towards a new enlightenment a critical project and a rhizomatic entity albeit with tacit harmony and cohesion From Bucharest to Paris London to New York Paris to Brazil Cuba or Chile to name a few the same urge for the unknown and anti art poetics emerged almost simultaneously in every field We ask how these separate geographical territories and practices speak to each other and how this might reshape scholars historical understanding of European and American modernity This is an open access book The Lyric in the Age of the Brain Nikki Skillman, 2016-06-06 Science has transformed understandings of the mind supplying physiological explanations for what once seemed transcendental Nikki Skillman shows how lyric poets caught between a reductive scientific view and naive literary metaphors struggled to articulate a vision of consciousness that was both scientifically informed and poetically truthful Globalizing the Avant-Garde David Ayers, Joana Cunha Leal, Benedikt Hjartarson, Margarida Brito Alves, 2024-12-16 How has the process of globalization shaped artistic practices on the one hand and art history and theory on the other The contributions in this volume approach this question from a range of perspectives taking into account the role of travel for example or practitioners increasing knowledge of other cultures art s increasing awareness of itself as existing on a global level literary translation the advance of technology and the ever changing grand narratives of art history As well as reflections on European avant gardes and neo avant gardes the collection features discussions of Japan Latin America Africa Asia and the Pacific As a whole the volume engages with broader current discourses about cultural globalization and features input from leading scholars around the world as well as some important novel interventions by early career researchers The authors not only make a major contribution to the evolution of avant garde studies but also offer valuable original points of view to art history and to the cultural theory of globalization more broadly Poetry, Architecture, and the New York School Mae Losasso, 2023-12-20 Poetry Architecture and the New York School Something Like a Liveable Space examines the relationship between poetics and architecture in the work of the first generation New York School poets Frank O Hara John Ashbery Barbara Guest and James Schuyler Reappraising the much debated New York School label Mae Losasso shows how these writers constructed poetic spaces structures surfaces and apertures and sought to figure themselves and their readers in relation to these architextual sites In doing so Losasso reveals how the built environment shapes the poetic imagination and how in turn poetry alters the way we read and inhabit architectural space Animated by archival research and architectural photographs Poetry Architecture and the New York School marks a decisive interdisciplinary turn in New York School studies and offers new frameworks for thinking about postmodern American poetry in the twenty first century
