Constance DeJong:

Constance DeJong Constance DeJong, Jonson Gallery, 1989 Constance DeJong: Reader Constance DeJong, 2022-04-26

The first anthology of the multivocal narrational performative writings of the intermedia pioneer who has quietly influenced generations of New York artists and writers from Kathy Acker to Ellie Ga. A leading figure of the 1970s and 80s downtown New York performance scene, Constance DeJong has channeled time and language as her mediums for the last four decades. The artist's experimental prose, multimedia, spoken text, works, recitational performance, and digital and media art projects expand the possibilities of narrative form, literary genre, and technological interactivity. This reader is the first anthology to collect DeJong's writing to date. Including out-of-print experimental short fiction such as the 2013 publication and performance SpeakChamber, the book also features numerous scripts for performances such as Relatives, a duet between a television and a performer made in collaboration with artist Tony Oursler. Spanning, text for disembodied voices emanating from reengineered radios, sound pieces, video works, and public art commissions, this anthology gathers DeJong's contributions to language and media art in all their forms.

Constance DeJong, born 1945, is a New York-based artist who has exhibited and performed nationally and internationally. Her work has been presented at the Renaissance Society, Chicago; the Walker Art Center, Minneapolis; the Wexner Center, Columbus; the Philadelphia Museum of Art; and in New York at The Kitchen, Thread Waxing Space, the Whitney Museum of American Art, and the Dia Center for the Arts. In 1983, she composed the libretto for the Philip Glass opera Satyagraha, which has been staged at opera houses worldwide, including the Metropolitan Opera, New York; the Netherlands National Opera, Rotterdam; and the Brooklyn Academy of Music, New York. She has permanent audio-text installations in Beacon, New York; London; and Seattle. DeJong has published several books of fiction, including her celebrated Modern Love (Standard Editions, 1977; reissued by Primary Information, Ugly Duckling Presse, 2017); I T I L O E (Top Stories, 1983); and Speakchamber Bureau (2013), and her work is included in the anthologies Up Is Up But So Is Down (New York's Downtown Literary Scene, 1974); 1991 (NYU Press, 2006); Blasted Allegories (New Museum/MIT, 1987); and Wild History (Tanam Press, 1985).

Constance DeJong, 2020 Modern Love Constance DeJong, 1977 Constance DeJong Arden Reed, Constance DeJong, 2003

This retrospective account of Constance DeJong's artistic career begins with the Steel Drawings of 1978 and ends with the Four Three series of 2002. During this period of stylistic and theoretical change in the art world, DeJong's is a story of invention within consistency, as each new series grows out of the preceding one in unexpected ways. DeJong is sensitive to metal, which she employs not as a tool but for its own sake. She is a poet of steel and copper, of stain and patina, plying the boundary between sculpture and painting. She brings out the denseness of metal but also dissolves its heft. Her compositions are at once hard-edged and mysterious; her Light Drawings use empty space to do the work of metal sheets. She works with line to wed the illusory character of painting to the substance of metal. This rich collection of photos captures the essence of DeJong's work. Complimented with descriptive text by Arden Reed and an
