Flannery, 2006 This new casebook consists of traditional cases statutes and materials related to courses associated with wills trusts and estates Particular attention has been directed towards international statutes and their contrast with American statutory and common law web sites offering forms and additional resources and the changing nature of federal and state tax considerations The tax considerations appear throughout the casebook but professors are offered the opportunity of either addressing taxation in the course or separating it so that it may be addressed in other courses The authors aim is to provide professors and students with a course of study that is orderly and engaging To meet this goal each chapter is preceded by a Tool Bar which indexes the subjects to be discussed This approach similar to that found on a computer offers professors an opportunity for an easy summary or introduction and gives students a visual grasp of the totality of the chapter Because decedents estates involve families their creation dissolution and interaction the casebook has a distinctive familial approach offering a classic death in the family as a starting point and ending with planning for incapacity and the decisions and assistance programs accompanying dependency The estates of persons in community property jurisdictions have valuable lessons to share with persons in common law states and there are multiple examples of these interactions in cases and statutes throughout the book The cases are carefully selected to provide the student with both a solid historical basis as well as the ability to see the application of both traditional and modern concepts The text is well written and more extensive than that typically found in a casebook The writing is clear concise and demonstrates the authors comprehensive grasp of both basic and complex concepts and the interplay between them The University of Arkansas at Little Rock Law Review California Law Revision Commission. Annual Conference, 2005-01-01 This book focuses upon two themes the definition of family and the impact of the expansion of the concept of family in law and family fights over wills and estates what recourse family members may have in challenging an estate The first part The challenge of the new family for Law considers the challenge both in the inter vivos and the postmortem contexts in the United States Canada France the United Kingdom Australia and New Zealand A particular focus is upon the dramatic expansion of the definition of family from the traditional nuclear family consisting of a husband wife and their mutual children to a definition that includes unmarried heterosexual and same sex couples living together and in some jurisdictions to new kinds of companionate partnerships that are not based on a sexual relationship In some jurisdictions such developments are simply an expression of sharing responsibility by allocating it in the private domain as opposed to the public potentially through social welfare in others particularly in the United States it is a defence of fundamental institutions and with it a defence of society itself The second part Family fights over wills and estates examines the law in Australia Switzerland France Mexico and the United Kingdom Its comparison of civil and common law approaches shows how the law expresses the same principle objects protection of family and obligations towards key family members but does so from entirely different perspectives and where the common law which enshrined the notion of testamentary freedom is being qualified through the expanding domain of family provision legislation the civil law which is based on codified shares and allocated responsibilities expressed through proportionate entitlements in estates is being qualified through a range of disqualifying and varying mechanisms
