Barton Palmer, 2014-08-14 This volume offers newly translated texts that exemplify the two most important traditions of Arthurian literature in the Middle Ages Encompassing such key works such as Lawman's Brut and Wace's Romance of Brut written in Middle English and Old French respectively the Arthurian Epic Tradition depends on Geoffrey of Monmouth's History of the Kings of Britain written in Latin Many modern readers are more familiar with Arthur and his fabled court as the centerpiece of a massive fictional tradition well represented in the second part of this volume including Chretien de Troyes's Story of the Grail The Quest of the Holy Grail and the Perlesvaus These selections emphasize the connection between secular and religious understandings of chivalry that is the most distinctive quality of medieval Arthurian romance Useful as a classroom text the volume provides material for a semester's worth of study Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here King Arthur's Modern Return Debra N. Mancoff, 2014-04-23 The Arthurian legend closes with a promise On a distant day when his country calls the king will return His lost realm will be regained and his shattered dream of an ideal world will at last be realized This collection of original essays explores the issue of return in the modern Arthurian legend With an Introduction by noted scholar Raymond H Thompson and 13 essays by authors from the fields of literature art history film history and folklore this collection reveals the flexibility of the legend Just as the modern legend takes the form current to its generation the myth of return generates a new legend with each telling As these authors show return can come in the form of a noble king or a Caribbean immigrant with the mystery of an art theft or a dying boy's dream Reinventing King Arthur Inga Bryden, 2016-12-05 In her systematic reassessment of the remaking of the Arthurian past in nineteenth century British fiction and non fiction Inga Bryden examines the Victorian Arthurian revival as a cultural phenomenon offering insights into the relationship between social cultural religious and ethnographic debates of the period and a wide range of texts Throughout she adopts an intertextual and historical perspective informed by poststructuralist thinking to reveal nineteenth century attitudes towards the past Starting with a review of the historical evidence available to Victorian writers and an examination of how historians of the time represented Arthur the author connects Victorian accounts of Arthur's quest to contemporary scientific and historical searches for origins and knowledge and to his appropriation by competing religious movements She shows how writers explored the dynamics of heroism by recruiting Arthur and his knights to define codes of chivalric service and to personify the psychological complexities of love Finally the legend of his death and transportation to Avalon is deconstructed and placed in the context of cultural attitudes towards commemorating the dead and theological debates about the afterlife Inga Bryden engages not only with well known Arthurian texts by Tennyson Swinburne Morris and Rossetti but with lesser known works by Bulwer Lytton Robert Stephen Hawker Sebastian Evans
