Artist In The Audience:

Artist, Audience, Accomplice Sydney Stutterheim, 2024-07-15 In Artist Audience Accomplice Sydney Stutterheim introduces a new figure into the history of performance art and related practices of the 1970s and 1980s the accomplice Occupying roles including eyewitness romantic partner studio assistant and documenter this figure is situated between the conventional subject positions of the artist and the audience The unseen and largely unacknowledged contributions of such accomplices exceed those performed by a typical audience because they share in the responsibility for producing artworks that entail potential ethical or legal transgressions Stutterheim analyzes the art of Chris Burden Hannah Wilke Martin Kippenberger and Lorraine O Grady showing how each cannily developed strategies of shared culpability that evoked questions about the accomplice s various rights and roles In this way Stutterheim argues that the artist s authority is not sovereign total or exclusive but rather fluid and relational By examining the development of an alternative model of participatory art that relies on a network of accomplices Stutterheim radically revises current understandings of artistic agency aesthetic property and acknowledged authorship

Artist and Audience Relationship in "The Artist is Present" from Marina Abramovic Lucy-Melina Laschewski, 2020-06-03 Seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject Art Installation Action Performance Art Modern Art grade 1 0 University of Dusseldorf Heinrich Heine Anglistik II language English abstract The paper focuses on the audience s participation in Abramovic s The Artist is Present It will be analysed in terms of its constitution further as to what extent the audience unknowingly plays in active role in simply being present The central part of this paper is set on the relationship between artist and viewer It will deal with how co subjectivity embodiment and presence as well as the audience s suggestibility work together to create a unique form of community during the performance An analytical basis for this closer examination will be provided through the 2012 published documentary by the same title Marina Abramovic The Artist is Present First this paper will shortly discuss performativity embodiment and presence and will give definitions based on primarily Erika Fischer Lichte s sthetik des Performativen in order to establish a general understanding of key factors regarding performance art Secondly the most important aspects of Abramovic s performance will be presented The relationship between artist and audience will be analysed and discussed according to the concerns given above As a result the unique character of the established community between artist and audience in this specific performance piece will be made clear Ultimately it will become apparent as to how the relationship between artist and audience is established through embodiment and presence

Beyond the Beat Daniel B. Cornfield, 2018-11-27 At a time when the bulwarks of the music industry are collapsing what does it mean to be a successful musician and artist How might contemporary musicians sustain their artistic communities Based on interviews with over seventy five popular music professionals in Nashville Beyond the Beat looks at artist activists those visionaries who create inclusive artist communities in today s individualistic and entrepreneurial art world Using Nashville as a model Daniel

Cornfield develops a theory of artist activism the ways that artist peers strengthen and build diverse artist communities Cornfield discusses how genre diversifying artist activists have arisen throughout the late twentieth century musician migration to Nashville a city that boasts the highest concentration of music jobs in the United States Music City is now home to diverse recording artists including Jack White El Movimiento the Black Keys and Paramore Cornfield identifies three types of artist activists the artist producer who produces and distributes his or her own and others work while mentoring early career artists the social entrepreneur who maintains social spaces for artist networking and arts trade union reformers who are revamping collective bargaining and union functions Throughout Cornfield examines enterprising musicians both known and less recognized He links individual and collective actions taken by artist activists to their orientations toward success audience and risk and to their original inspirations for embarking on music careers Beyond the Beat offers a new model of
