

The illustration depicts a vibrant scene of a floating market. In the background, a large, snow-capped mountain, likely Mount Fuji, rises against a hazy, orange-tinted sky. Below the mountain, a body of water reflects the light. The foreground is dominated by a long, narrow wooden pier or walkway that runs along the water's edge. The pier is lined with numerous stalls and shops, each with a dark, corrugated metal roof. The walls of the shops are decorated with various patterns and signs. A large crowd of people, dressed in traditional Japanese clothing, is seen walking along the pier. Some are carrying large bundles on their backs, while others are engaged in transactions. In the lower-left corner, a person is operating a traditional weighing scale. The overall style is characteristic of traditional Japanese woodblock prints, with fine lines and a rich color palette.
