Стаття присвячена дослідженню маркування інтертекстуальних включень у художньому дискурсі з метою розкриття семантико-функційного потенціалу імпліцитних та експліцитних маркерів інтертекстуальності у творах американських та англійських письменників ХХ століття. Аналіз інтертекстуальності в художньому дискурсі допоміг виявити засоби її репрезентації, систематизувати та встановити дискурсивно-функційний потенціал інтертекстуальних включень. Матеріалом дослідження слугували романи "The Cruising of Lot 49" Томаса Пінчона та "A History of the World in 10½ Chapters" Джуліана Барнса. Методологія дослідження передбачала використання методу уважного читання для аналізу структури романів, методу текстологічного аналізу творів дібраного матеріалу, методу лінгвістичного та інтертекстуального аналізу для ідентифікації й опису різних видів інтертекстуальності та міжтекстових зв'язків, методу інтермедіального аналізу для встановлення семантичних зв'язків між інтертекстуальними елементами належних до суміжних видів мистецтва, семантико-стилістичного методу для опису можливості різних ресурсів та їх семантики, методу деконструкції для ідентифікації непрямих інтертекстуальних зв'язків між текстами. Розроблено критерії для ідентифікації та типологізації інтертекстуальних маркерів: прямих та непрямих. Окреслено особливості семантики й функціонування інтертекстуальних маркерів у проаналізованому корпусі матеріалу. Результати дослідження полягають у розробленні авторської таксономії прямих і непрямих маркерів інтертекстуальності, що дозволить оцінити вплив рівня читачької компетентії на розуміння художніх текстів.

Ключові слова: художній текст, художній дискурс, інтертекстуальність, інтертекстуальний маркер, прямі та непрямі інтертекстуальні маркери.

Zhalko D. D. Marking intertextuality in the artistic discourse of the twentieth century

The article is devoted to the study of marking intertextual inclusions in literary discourse in order to reveal the semantic and functional potential of implicit and explicit markers of intertextuality in the works of American and English writers of the twentieth century. The analysis of intertextuality in artistic discourse helped to identify intertextual markers and determine the means of their representation, systematize intertextual

Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth-Century Art David W. Galenson, 2009-09-28 Galenson combines social scientific methods with qualitative analysis to produce a new interpretation of modern art     Collaborative Art in the Twenty-First Century Sondra Bacharach, Siv B. Fjærestad, Jeremy Neil Booth, 2016-05-05 Collaboration in the arts is no longer a conscious choice to make a deliberate artistic statement but instead a necessity of artistic survival In today s hybrid world of virtual mobility collaboration decentralizes creative strategies enabling artists to carve new territories and maintain practice based autonomy in an increasingly commercial and saturated art world Collaboration now transforms not only artistic practices but also the development of cultural institutions communities and personal lifestyles This book explores why collaboration has become so integrated into a greater understanding of creative artistic practice It draws on an emerging generation of contributors from the arts art history sociology political science and philosophy to engage directly with the diverse and interdisciplinary nature of collaborative practice of the future     Authors and Art Movements of the Twentieth Century Declan Lloyd, 2022-12-30 This book explores the great influence of twentieth century artists and art movements on many major writers of the twentieth century It focuses in particular on four seminal writers who were strongly influenced by very different movements they are Gertrude Stein and Cubism William S Burroughs and Dada J G Ballard and Surrealism and Douglas Coupland and Pop Art For these authors the presence and influence of these art movements is not limited to a small cluster of texts but can be felt much more expansively across their work infiltrating all manner of multifarious and complex dimensions These authors are all keen to explore new methods of shifting the signature styles and forms of visual art into the literary world Alongside these more overt methods of artistic transposition the authors also often demonstrate a deep philosophical affinity with their chosen movements This book uproots and examines these kinds of artistic engagements and also explores the authors own personal connections with the world of art For these are all authors not only interested in visual art but also intimately connected to the art world Indeed some went on to become renowned artists in their own right while others were closely associated with major historical art figures Above all however they are unified by a kindred interest in exploring how the methods and philosophies of art can be transposed into and even challenge the constraints of traditional forms of literature     ARTISTIC COLLABORATIONS 20TH Cynthia Jaffee McCabe, 1984-07-17 The myth of the solitary artist particularly in the twentieth century is the focus of this volume Collaboration according to Cynthia Jaffee McCabe has been a vital and heretofore little recognised component of avant garde artistic development in the visual arts throughout the 20th century A European phenomenon during the early part of the century collaboration among artist is now an integral part of the international scene     The Art Book Tradition in Twentieth-century Europe Kathryn J. Brown, 2013 Exploring various ways in which a range of twentieth century European artists and writers challenged the boundary between visual and linguistic expression in the content production and physical form of books these essays challenge the roles played by visual and bodily sensation in recent histories of literary modernism The collection argues that examples of the art book tradition both test and celebrate vision while contextualizing it among other sensory experiences The Twentieth Century, 1926

Printmaking in America Trudy V. Hansen, Jane Voorhees Zimmerli Art Museum, 1995-09 The years from 1960 to 1990 witnessed an extraordinary outburst of creative activity among American printmakers A number of important new workshops were founded from such influential studios as Universal Limited Art Editions as Long Island and the Tamarind Lithography Workshop in Los Angeles to small presses throughout the country In contrast to traditional European ateliers where professional printers reproduced artists designs for commercial edition printing the new American workshops stressed collaboration and emphasized radical experimentation with medium and process The work produced in these studios often owed as much to the imaginative gifts of the printer as the conception of the artist
