Sinclair Ross Lorraine McMullen, 1991 Sinclair Ross's As for Me and My House David Stouck, 1991-01-01 In the past twenty years as the structures of Canadian culture have begun to change so has the fate of As For Me and My House As for Me and My Body Keath Fraser, 1997 We catch glimpses of him living beside the Mediterranean in Greece and in Spain where his career as a novelist later revived and where Fraser first visited him in the 1970s As for Sinclair Ross David Stouck, 2005-01-01 Sinclair Ross 1908 1996 best known for his canonical novel As for Me and My House 1941 and for such familiar short stories as The Lamp at Noon and The Painted Door is an elusive figure in Canadian literature A master at portraying the hardships and harsh beauty of the Prairies during the Great Depression Ross nevertheless received only modest attention from the public during his lifetime His reluctance to give readings or interviews further contributed to this faint public perception of the man In As for Sinclair Ross David Stouck tells the story of a lonely childhood in rural Saskatchewan of a long and unrewarding career in a bank and of many failed attempts to be published and to find an audience The book also tells the story of a man who fell in love with both men and women and who wrote from a position outside any single definition of gender and sexuality Stouck's biography draws on archival records and on insights gathered during an acquaintance late in Ross's life to illuminate this difficult author describing in detail the struggles of a gifted artist living in an inhospitable time and place Stouck argues that when Ross was writing about prairie farmers and small towns he wanted his readers to see the kind of society they were creating to feel uncomfortable with religion as coercive rhetoric prejudices based on race and ethnicity and rigid notions of gender As for Sinclair Ross is the story of a remarkable writer whose works continue to challenge us and are rightly considered classics of Canadian literature Introducing Sinclair Ross's As for Me and My House George Woodcock, 1990 Canadian Fiction Studies are an answer to every librarian's student's and teacher's wishes Each book contains clear information on a major Canadian novel Attractively produced they contain a chronology of the author's life information on the importance of the book and its critical reception an in depth reading of the text and a selected list of works cited As for Me and My House Sinclair Ross, 2018-01-09 As For Me and My House is an essential Canadian work a precise and compelling portrait of our culture our psyche and the nature of contemporary art itself now available as a Penguin Modern Classic In the windswept town of Horizon an unnamed diarist paints a vivid and enthralling picture of prairie life in the Depression era Atmospheric intimate and richly observed As For Me and My House is a moving meditation on the bittersweet nature of human relationships on the bonds that tie people together and the undercurrents of feeling that can tear them apart It is one of Canada's great novels and a landmark in modern fiction The Lamp at Noon and Other Stories Sinclair Ross, 2018-01-09 Sinclair Ross 1941 novel As For Me and My House is a masterpiece of Canadian literature a stunning evocation of the Prairies and their inhabitants during the Depression of the Thirties With The Lamp at Noon and Other Stories an original New Canadian Library collection Ross reveals further dimensions of his fictional universe A woman's impulsive infidelity leads to tragedy A sudden hailstorm destroys hope A boy learns to conquer a beautiful wild horse A little girl dreams about a circus Against the isolated haunting landscapes of summer droughts and winter blizzards the men and women of Ross stories grapple with fate against almost impossible odds Marked by a legacy of pride that will not suffer defeat Ross unyielding characters are cut off from their loved ones by obstinacy and defiance Their tragedy is not that they suffer but that they suffer alone The sensitivity compassion and subtlety with which Ross portrays human aspirations and failings remain to this day unequalled in Canadian fiction Sinclair Ross, 1981 The Well Sinclair Ross, 2001-12 A petty criminal eludes capture by becoming a hired man on a prairie farm only to discover deception and betrayal Introduction by Kristjana Gunnars The Race and Other Stories by Sinclair Ross Sinclair Ross, 1978-01-01 Heralded as a prairie writer and best known for As for Me and My House and for his stories of the bleak dust bowl Prairies of the Great Depression Sinclair Ross has also written of urban life and briefly of army life as the stories in this collection demonstrate The Race and Other Stories includes previously uncollected short stories and a chapter from Whir of Gold here title The Race which stands on its own as a short story Furthermore Spike published in French in Libert in 1969 appears here for the first time in English Ross's taut economical rhythmic prose reflects the bleak spare landscape of the prairie The concerns of his novels are equally evident in his stories loneliness and alienation the sense of entrapment the imaginative and artistic struggle This collection of stories will be of interest to those who wish to better understand one of Canada's most respected writers and the diversity that can be found in his writings The Race and Other Stories includes previously uncollected short stories by Sinclair Ross one of Canada's most respected writers Published in English Whir of Gold Sinclair Ross, 2001-12 Sonny an aspiring musician and Mad a young woman down on her luck struggle to survive in the mean streets of Montreal Introduction by Nat Hardy Ideals of Religion and Art in Sinclair Ross's "As for me and my house" Katja Burk-Pitzer, 2005-10-04 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2-3 University of Marburg course Canadian Literature language English abstract This term paper analyzes ideals of religion and art based on the novel of Sinclair Ross As for me and my house The plot is set during the Great Depression in Canada and is about two artists that have been married since twelve years and presently live in a small town called Horizon Philip Bentley the minister of the town's church devotes his spare time to painting and his wife who takes care of the household plays the piano once in a while at home but gave up her career as a musician There can be no denying the fact that a society and its culture and values affect and influence people's life to a certain extent Therefore as starting point cultural and regional aspects determining men's life during the Great Depression that took place from 1929 until 1939 will be dealt with At a second step I will have a closer look at religion and art as creative powers Subsequently an analysis of the novel in question will face Philip Bentley's view of religion and his vision of an artist through the eyes of his wife the narrator of the story In chapter three parallels between religion and art will be drawn based on definitions by renowned philosophers

Finally as a conclusion I will sum up the crucial points of religion and art identified Sinclair Ross and His Works

John Moss,1992 This volume gathers together authors and critics to reappraise the legacy of Sinclair Ross Beyond Ross major novel As For Me and My House the contributors reestablish the value of his other writings in their literary and historical contexts Published in English The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik,2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada s flagship genre It continues to attract the country s most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre s beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre s development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany
