If we understood something just one way, we would not understand it at all.
