Ascended Master Dictations 2 Talks With The Master:

Ascended Master Dictations 2 Li Po, 2004-04 Hunting Adventures From Father to Son is about the author's lifetime enjoyment of hunting and his growth and maturity as a hunter. The chronological format used beginning with Kimber's first duck hunt as a twelve year old and ending with a mule deer bowhunt in his late fifties will appeal to hunters of all ages. Underlying his stories is a long term evolutionary change in attitude and outlook about hunting from a youthful emphasis on bag limits and kill counts to a broader appreciation of the total experience where harvesting game becomes a bonus and not the sole measure of one's hunting satisfaction or success. Kimber Shoop's hunting adventures and memories are not dissimilar to those treasured by thousands of others who venture forth with bow or gun. Companions and places may differ but the sights, smells, and sounds are the same for all. It is the author's hope that his tales will not only entertain but serve as a learning tool to help eliminate mistakes and promote greater success in the field, marsh, or woods regardless of age from father to son.
