

A large, golden cricket trophy, the Ashes, is the central focus of the image. It is positioned in the middle of a cricket pitch, which is surrounded by a large crowd of spectators in a stadium. The scene is set during sunset or sunrise, with a bright, glowing light source on the left side of the frame, casting a warm glow over the entire scene. The sky is a mix of blue and orange, and the stadium lights are visible in the background. The trophy has a dark wooden base and a golden cup with two handles. The text "THE ASHES, 2025-26" is overlaid on a yellow banner across the middle of the image.

book offers new perspectives on both the contemporary realities of modern cricket and the social cultural and political condition of modern Britain Rather than focusing on personality and the detail of match history the book looks at how the sport has coped with wider societal changes such as those in Afro Caribbean and South Asian communities and how this has demanded adaptation by cricket s governing authorities The book also considers the international context in which the game continues to develop and how the initiative with new formats such as Twenty20 has been lost to other cricketing nations and it offers insight into the continued expansion and recent professionalization of the women s game hinting at ways in which cricket as a whole could recapture the public s imagination Cricket and Contemporary Society in Britain is an invaluable resource for those studying the sociology of sport sport history cultural studies the politics of sport cultural identity sport management and sport development It is also a fascinating read for anybody with an interest in cricket or in the value of sport in an era of rapid socio economic political and cultural change The Nation ,1922 The Politics of Sport Paul Gilchrist,Russell Holden,2013-09-13 Sport is an essential part of community structure membership and identity Whether on the field of play in stadia or on the streets sport has consistently brought together disparate individuals to share culture values and memories Nowadays these relationships are being rewritten through the effects of global socio economic practices the interventions of government the impact of cultural imperialism and at the local level through the actions of individuals and new constituencies that are emerging in response Furthermore this generates discourse on matters of regional and national identity This themed issue presents a range of essays that examine the relationship between sport and society through the conceptual lenses of community mobility and identity Drawing upon insights from contemporary history and current political phenomena from leading academic specialists in the field the issue addresses cross cutting themes such as loyalty and allegiance migration and integration identity and collective memory and the politics of resistance and change which will be of interest to the political scientist the contemporary historian and sport scholar alike This book was previously published as a special edition of the journal Sport in Society The Times Index ,2011 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Canadian ,1920 The Externals of the Catholic Church John Francis Sullivan,1918 The Canadian Magazine ,1920 Burton's Book on California and Its Sunlit Skies of Glory George Ward Burton,1909 Tom Watson's Magazine ,1906 Ancient History to the Death of Charlemagne Willis Mason West,1902 Messenger and Visitor ,1918 The Journal and Messenger ,1918 Building ,1888 1971 Boria Majumdar,Gautam Bhattacharya,2021-04-20 1971 was the year that changed Indian cricket forever Accustomed to seeing a talented but erratic Indian team go from one defeat to another a stunned cricketing world watched in astonishment as India first beat the West Indies in a Test series on their home turf and then emerged victorious over England in England Suddenly the Indian team had become a force to reckon with Boria Majumdar and Gautam Bhattacharya s book is a thrilling account of
