Asian and African Studies Jozef Genzor, 1991 meisai.org.il, Asian and African Studies ,1993 meisai.org.il, Asian and African Studies ,1993 Terrorism, Instability, and Democracy in Asia and Africa Dan G. Cox, John Falconer, Brian Stackhouse, 2010-09-01 A chilling up to the minute look at the links between political instability and terrorism in Asia and Africa Routledge Handbook of Africa-Asia Relations Pedro Amakasu Raposo, David Arase, Scarlett Cornelissen, 2017-10-30 The Routledge Handbook of Africa Asia Relations is the first handbook aimed at studying the interactions between countries across Africa and Asia in a multi disciplinary and comprehensive way Providing a balanced discussion of historical and on going processes which have both shaped and changed intercontinental relations over time contributors take a thematic approach to examine the ways in which we can conceptualise these two very different yet inextricably linked areas of the world Using comparative examples throughout the chronological sections cover Early colonialist contacts between Africa and Asia Modern Asia Africa interactions through diplomacy political networks and societal connections Africa Asia contemporary relations including increasing economic security and environmental cooperation This handbook grapples with major intellectual questions defines current research and projects future agendas of investigation in the field As such it will be of great interest to students of African and Asian Politics as well as researchers and policymakers interested in Asian and African Studies Liberty and Security in an Anarchical World Volume II Brandon Christensen, 2024-12-16 The book takes a hard look at libertarian foreign policy doctrines especially those of non intervention interstate federalism and non aggression and applies new insights to these old doctrines Classical liberal thinkers such as Vincent Ostrom James Madison and F A Hayek have all hinted at the idea of world governance from a libertarian standpoint Yet today the libertarian position on foreign policy is either non intervention from the US side of the Atlantic or a halfhearted confederation from the European side of the Atlantic The themes that emerge in this volume II are whether or not libertarian alternatives to the status quo are workable and if so what would they look like The Experience of Economic Redistribution Clarence Tshitereke, 2006-10-09 This book provides an analysis of the country s political economy in transition It documents the history of the gold mining industry s involvement in shaping the political landscape of South Africa and shows the degree to which the political transition was induced to put in place a new mode of regulation for capital accumulation In the process the victims of apartheid have now become victims of democracy s neo liberalism as the government is constrained from being developmental interventionist and redistributive Problems Facing Contemporary Africa and Viable Strategies for Redress Mathurin C. Hounnikpo, Henry Kyambalesa, 2001 Overviews Africa s socio economic problems and development prospects in the 21st century and offers recommendations for solving problems and encouraging development Examines the issue of political leadership and corruption then discusses social challenges and economic issues facing the continent in areas such as war and ethnic conflict environmental degradation privatization and debt and looks at what can be revived from African traditions to improve modern conditions Of interest to students of African development studies policy makers and business executives in Africa and those wishing to invest in Africa Houngnikpo is visiting professor of international studies at Miami University of Ohio Kyambalesa is a consultant in business management based in Denver c Book News Inc
