Arthur James Wells

Asian Brand Strategy How Asia Builds Strong Brands:

Asian Brand Strategy M. Roll, 2005-10-17 This book offers insights, knowledge, and perspectives on Asian brands and branding as a strategic tool and provides a comprehensive framework for understanding Asian branding strategies and Asian brands, including success stories and challenges for future growth and strengths. The book includes theoretical frameworks and models and up-to-date case studies on Asian brands. Asian Brand Strategy (Revised and Updated) M. Roll, 2016-02-11 This second edition of the bestselling Asian Brand Strategy takes a look at how Asian brands continue to gain share of voice and share of market. Featuring a user-friendly strategic model, new research, and case studies, this book provides a framework for understanding Asian branding strategies and Asian brands. Flying Ahead of the Airplane Nawal K. Taneja, 2016-04-15 Airlines willing to develop insight from foresight relating to the expected step phase changes will eventually improve their margins. However, the backward-looking airline managed using old strategic levers and short-term metrics will cease to exist, merge, shrink, become more dependent on government support, or become irrelevant. Management innovations are not going to deliver the required improvements; innovation within management is essential for airlines' survival. In Flying Ahead of the Airplane, Nawal Taneja analyzes global changes and thought-provoking scenarios to help airline executives adjust and adapt to the chaotic world. Drawing on his experience of real airline situations worldwide, the author concludes that there is a gap between what executives are doing now and what they need to do to stay ahead of the curve. To close this gap, the author suggests that airline executives focus on just three relevant initiatives: a) aligning business and technology strategies, b) redesigning organization structures to centralize the role of the scheduling function, and c) developing relevant brands that integrate social networking technology. To support this third initiative, the book provides insights on branding from 20 fascinating non-aviation case studies from around the world. Flying Ahead of the Airplane will assist practitioners in airlines of every size to integrate future trends into their mainstream thinking and launch flexible business models to manage risk and compete effectively in the flattening world. Branding in Asia Paul Temporal, 2001-06-20 Paul Temporal shows how the fundamental principles of brand building are transferable to the Asian environment. A diverse collection of Asian caselets should convince us that the 21st century will see the emergence of more Asian regional and global megabrands. Professor John A. Quelch, Dean, London Business School. Branding in Asia addresses an unusual situation in Asia: how is it that a region which has such high brand appreciation produces few international brands of its own? The author's analysis of actual case studies, ranging from powerful global brands to local companies, illustrates his points clearly. This, coupled with a sensitive understanding of the cultural differences in the region, makes it an excellent reference for everyone working with brands. Felix Herrnberger, President, BMW Asia Pte Ltd. Paul Temporal succinctly dissects the often-mystical qualities that make up a successful brand. Too often, Western insights, models, and case studies are applied arbitrarily across the globe; it is so refreshing to see branding tackled from a purely Asian perspective. An invaluable
