The Children's Book of Christmas Stories Charles Dickens, Hans Christian Andersen, Elizabeth Harrison, 2014-04

In this day and age, and in some circles, Christmas doesn't live in the minds and hearts of people the way it used to. That's a shame because Christmas is a special time when all hearts should be filled with love and consideration for their fellow man. Even more important, it's also the time when we celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. In 1913, when THE CHILDREN'S BOOK OF CHRISTMAS STORIES edited by Asa Don Dickinson and Ada M Skinner was first published, Christmas was a magical time of year and hearts everywhere were full of love and joy. It can be that way again if you'll just allow the spirit of Christmas into your heart. Of course, we're not talking about children; they're always ready for Christmas. In this book, you'll find stories by such well-known authors as Charles Dickens and Hans Christian Andersen. You'll also find stories by authors you've never heard of, but relax and know that every story represented here has been read and enjoyed by thousands of children. Even more important, each story is filled with the true spirit of Christmas, and your children won't want you to put the book down. Pop some popcorn, make a jug of punch, find a well-lit place to sit down with your kids, and get ready to really celebrate Christmas with THE CHILDREN'S BOOK OF CHRISTMAS STORIES. You'll all enjoy the true spirit of this most meaningful day of the year. CHRISTMAS DAY

Many beloved classics of children's literature, including Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, Peter Pan, and The Tale of Peter Rabbit, were written at the end of the nineteenth century, an era known as the Golden Age of children's literature. Notable figures like William Godwin, Harriet Martineau, Christina

Rossetti and Charles Dickens contributed to children's literature while juvenile periodicals first appeared to young readers during this time. This is the first comprehensive reference work about the Golden Age of children's literature and the emergence of juvenile literature as a major publishing phenomenon. Alphabetical entries include foundational figures like Sarah Trimmer, Maria Edgeworth, and Mary Martha Sherwood, who helped establish the market for children's literature. New genres for the time like the moral tale, religious fiction, children's poetry, school stories, and prolific authors like Hesba Stretton, L. T. Meade, and G. A. Henty are also included.
