Children's Geographies:

Children's Geographies Sarah L. Holloway, Gill Valentine, 2004-11-23 Children's Geographies is an overview of a rapidly expanding area of cutting edge research Drawing on original research and extensive case studies in Europe North and South America Africa and Asia the book analyses children's experiences of playing living and learning The diverse case studies range from an historical analysis of gender relations in nineteenth century North American playgrounds through to children's experiences of after school care in contemporary Britain to street cultures amongst homeless children in Indonesia at the end of the twentieth century Threaded through this empirical diversity is a common engagement with current debates about the nature of childhood The individual chapters draw on contemporary sociological understandings of children's competence as social actors In so doing they not only illustrate the importance of such an approach to our understandings of children's geographies they also contribute to current debates about spatiality in the social studies of childhood Routledge Handbook of Coaching Children in Sport Martin Toms, Ruth Jeanes, 2022-12-23 The Routledge Handbook of Coaching Children in Sport provides a comprehensive and extensive range of critical reflections of key areas impacting on children's sport and coaching up to the age of 16 With coaching related chapters authored by academic across various disciplines including nutrition psychology pedagogy medicine youth development and sociology the text provides detailed reviews of the existing state of research and consideration of the implications of these particular factors upon parents coaches administrators and clearly the young people themselves as well as recommendations for future research This new volume provides in depth investigation to key topics of coaching topics such as Learning and Child Development Protecting Young Athletes Talent Identification and Development and Inclusive Coaching and finally introduce a broad array of contextual considerations for coaches from considering professional learning through to coaching in particular contexts This book is more than simply an academic text and it offers insights that will further inform practice in children's sport coaching The handbook is relevant for students UG PG researchers academics parents coaches and administrators as well as those interested in children's sport coaching and the related topics therein Martin Toms PhD is a senior lecturer associate professor in the School of Sport Exercise and Rehabilitation Sciences at the University of Birmingham UK A former professional sports coach with an MPhil and PhD exploring the sociological issues of young people in junior sport Martin has been heavily involved in juniors sport all of his adult life He has published widely and presented extensively around the world on youth sport including working on international projects and for NBGs Federations and National Governmental organisations He has gained European and SCUK funding for youth and coaching related projects as well as being involved in international consultancy He is a co editor of the European Journal for Sport and Society as well as the current Editor in Chief of the International Journal of Golf Science Ruth Jeanes PhD is an associate professor in the Faculty of Education at Monash University Australia Ruth's research examines inclusion and exclusion within youth sport particularly examining how sport can be used to achieve broader social policy objectives targeted at young people Within this she is particularly interested in the role of coaches in facilitating broader social outcomes for young people Ruth has published extensively in these areas with over 100 publications across journal articles book chapters and books She is widely cited and has been successful in securing extensive funding for her research including two highly competitive Australian Research Council grants

Doing Children's Geographies Lorraine van Blerk, Mike Kesby, 2013-10-31 Doing Children's Geographies provides a useful resource for all those embarking on research with young people Drawing on reflections from original cutting edge research undertaken across three continents the book focuses on the challenges researchers face when working with children youth and their families The book is divided into three sections The first section provides alternatives to some of the difficulties researchers face and highlights methodological innovations as geographers uncover new and exciting ways of working The second part specifically addresses the issues surrounding children and youth's participation providing critiques of current practice and offering alternatives for increasing young people's involvement in research design Finally the book broadens to a consideration of wider areas of concern for those working with children and youth This section discusses the nature of childhood in relation to research the place of emotions in research with young people and the process of undertaking applied research This book was previously published as a special issue of Children's Geographies

Children and Young People's Relationships Samantha Punch, Kay Tisdall, 2016-04-08 This book challenges the current state of childhood studies by exploring children and young people's agency and relationships It considers how recent theorisations of relationships and relational processes can move childhood studies forward particularly in relation to re thinking claims of children and young people's agency and uncritical assertions around children and young people's participation and voice It does this by bringing together case studies of children's inter generational and intra generational relationships from both the Majority and Minority Worlds The main themes include negotiated power agency across contexts and negotiations of identity The chapters show both the heritage of childhood studies particularly within the UK and where it may be going One of the key aims of the book is to add to the limited but growing cross world dialogue that encourages cross cultural learning from research and practice in both Majority and Minority World contexts leading towards a more integrated global approach to childhood studies This book was published as a special issue of Children's Geographies

The Beginning of Politics Kirsi Pauliina Kallio, Jouni Hakli, 2016-02-05 The conventional wisdom according to which children's lives should be safe from adult concerns tends to situate them categorically outside the political Thus understood children become political agents when they reach maturity and eligibility to formal participation Alternatively political skills and competences may be seen to develop gradually through political socialization Both views are challenged in recent scholarship on youthful politics beyond the formal adult centered political world This book considers politics as it appears and unfolds in children and young people's everyday lives The collection problematizes several key concepts in the research field and introduces a relational reading of youthful political agency based on social spatial and political theorization The chapters engage with youthful realities in Sri Lanka Palestine Sweden New Zealand the US and the UK revealing a variety of ways in which children and youth are important political actors in their own right The book also includes an extensive literary review on the study of children and young people s politics in the past decade This book was originally published as a special issue of Space and Polity

Society and Social Changes through the Prism of Childhood Hanne Warming,2023-09-19 This book presents a new childhood studies research program namely Childhood Prism Research and offers unique childhood research contributions to the wider scholarly field Bringing together cutting edge childhood studies scholars from various disciplines including philosophy psychology feminism anthropology sociology and literature the book demonstrates the rich potential of this program and offers an introduction to the childhood prism theoretical framework as well as examples of childhood prism research Childhood prism research is underpinned by a distinct childhood studies approach that involves re thinking the generational order perspective and combining this with a relational ontology and a flat non adultist epistemology The key assumption is that the study of children s lives can offer not only insights into adults lives and vice versa but in some cases may even offer a privileged lens onto broader societal issues The program embraces a number of seemingly oppositional positions in an ongoing debate within childhood studies and children s geographies about how to reinvigorate theoretical thinking within these fields Featuring leading childhood studies scholars from various disciplines including philosophy psychology feminism anthropology sociology and literature this book demonstrates the rich potential of the program and shows how researching children s and young people s lives using this approach holds great promise for significant theoretical development beyond the field of children s geographies and childhood studies as well as for empirical exploration of broader societal issues Society and Social Changes Through the Prism of Childhood will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Childhood Studies Sociology Human Geography Social Sciences and Psychology The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Children s Geographies

Geographies of Children, Youth and Families Louise Holt,2010-12-21 This edited collection brings together international experts from the vibrant and growing field of geographies of children youth and families Designed as an introduction to the topic this book provides an overview of current conceptual and theoretical debates surrounding geographies of children youth and families and gives a wide range of examples of cutting edge research from a variety of national contexts across the globe The theme of disentangling the socio spatial contexts of young people and or their families advances debates in the field by emphasising the context of young people s social agency Geographies of Children Youth and Families is an invaluable course text for undergraduate and postgraduate students of geography and the social sciences as well as being of interest to students and practitioners of education youth work social policy and social work The Children's Folklore Review ,2007 Children's Lifeworlds Rodney Gerber,Margaret Robertson,2008 This is the latest volume in a series of publications which aims to alert readers to current and recent challenges facing teachers parents and educators in general Emerging goals link each volume and this particular focus draws upon the expertise and research of distinguished contributors from around the world The perspectives of children growing up in Multi cultural societies in Western Cultures in Asian Cultures and elsewhere are brought together in a fascinating collection illustrating and interpreting the variations exhibited in children s views of place environment society and the future

Contested Bodies of Childhood and Youth Kathrin Hörschelmann,Rachel Colls,2009-10-22 Demonstrating the contested and differentiated nature of childhood embodiment this book responds to media discourses that stigmatize unruly youthful bodies by combining the critical analysis of imagined and disciplined youthful bodies with a focus on young people s lived and performed embodied subjectivities

Space, Landscape and Environment Karen Nairn,Peter Kraftl,Tracey Skelton,2017-09-10 Geographies of children and young people is a rapidly emerging sub discipline within human geography There is now a critical mass of established academic work key names within academia growing numbers of graduate students and expanding numbers of university level taught courses There are also professional training programmes at national scales and in international contexts that work specifically with children and young people In addition to a productive journal of Children s Geographies there s a range of monographs textbooks and edited collections focusing on children and young people published by all the major academic presses then there is a substantive body of work on younger people within human geography and active authors and researchers working within international contexts to warrant a specific Major Reference Work on children s and young people s geographies The volumes and sections are structured by themes which then reflect the broader geographical locations of the research

Children and Young People's Spaces Pam Foley,Stephen Leverett,2011 This reader takes debates about children s services forward by drawing on ideas based in social pedagogy and arguing that the concept of space is crucial to relationships and practices with children and young people It will stimulate students to question and rethink and practitioners to innovate and challenge mainstream thinking

Critical Geographies of Childhood and Youth Peter Kraftl,John Horton,Faith J. Tucker,2012 This original book explores the importance of geographical processes for policies and professional practices related to childhood and youth Contributors from a wide range of disciplinary backgrounds explore how concepts such as place scale mobility and boundary making are important for policies and practices in diverse contexts Chapters present both comprehensive cutting edge academic research and critical reflections by practitioners working in diverse contexts giving the volume wide appeal The focus on the role of geographical processes in policies and professional practices that affect young people provides new critical insights into contemporary issues and debates The contributions show how local and national concerns remain central to many youth programmes they also highlight how youth policies are becoming increasingly globalised Examples are taken from the UK the Americas and Africa The chapters are informed by and advance contemporary theoretical approaches in human geography sociology anthropology and youth work and will be of interest to academics and higher level students in those disciplines The book will also appeal to policy makers and professionals who work with young people encouraging them to critically reflect upon the role of geographical processes in their own work Research in Geographic Education ,2009

Telling Young Lives Craig Jeffrey, Jane Dyson, 2008-09-15 Telling Young Lives presents more than a dozen fascinating ethnographically informed portraits of young people facing rapid changes in society and politics from different parts of the world From a young woman engaged in agricultural labor in the High Himalayas to a youth activist based in Tanzania the distinctive voices from the U K India Germany Sierra Leone South Africa and Bosnia Herzegovina provide insights into the active and creative ways these youths are addressing social and political challenges such as war hunger and homelessness Telling Young Lives has great appeal for classroom use in geography courses and makes a welcome contribution to the growing field of young geographies as well as to politics and political geography Its focus on individual portraits gives readers a fuller more vivid picture of the ways in which global changes are reshaping the actual experiences and strategies of young people around the world Environment & Planning ,2012 Consumer Behavior I: Consumer socialization: childhood, children and families Margaret K. Hogg, 2005 Home Geographic Monthly ,1930 Establishing Geographies of Children and Young People Tracey Skelton, Stuart Aitken, 2016-05-10 Geographies of children and young people is a rapidly emerging sub discipline within human geography There is now a critical mass of established academic work key names within academia growing numbers of graduate students and expanding numbers of university level taught courses There are also professional training programmes at national scales and in international contexts that work specifically with children and young people In addition to a productive journal of Children s Geographies there s a range of monographs textbooks and edited collections focusing on children and young people published by all the major academic presses then there is a substantive body of work on younger people within human geography and active authors and researchers working within international contexts to warrant a specific Major Reference Work on children s and young people s geographies The volumes and sections are structured by themes which then reflect the broader geographical locations of the research Children's Special Places David Sobel, 1993 An examination of the secret world of children that shows how important special places are to a child s development From the ages of five to twelve the middle years of childhood young people explore their surroundings and find or construct private spaces In these secret places children develop and control environments of their own and enjoy freedom from the rules of the adult world Children s Special Places enters these hidden worlds reveals their importance to children s development and emotional health and shows educators parents and other adults how they can foster a bond between young people and nature that is important to maturation Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved
