Children's Literature 6:

Comparative Children's Literature Emer O'Sullivan, 2005-03-05 Emer O'Sullivan traces the history of children's literature studies from the enthusiastic internationalism of the post-war period which set out from the idea of a world republic of childhood to modern comparative criticism

Children's Literature in the Classroom Diane M. Barone, 2011-03-08 Many reading programs today overlook an essential component of literacy instruction helping children develop an enduring love of reading This authoritative and accessible guide provides a wealth of ideas for incorporating high quality children's books of all kinds into K-6 classrooms Numerous practical strategies are presented for engaging students with picturebooks fiction nonfiction and nontraditional texts Lively descriptions of recommended books and activities are interspersed with invaluable tips for fitting authentic reading experiences into the busy school day Every chapter concludes with reflection questions and suggestions for further reading The volume also features reproducible worksheets and forms

Apartheid and Racism in South African Children's Literature 1985-1995 Donnarae MacCann, Yulisa Amadu Maddy, 2013-09-13 While white racism has global dimensions it has an unshakeable lease on life in South African political organizations and its educational system Donnarae MacCann and Yulisa Maddy here provide a thorough and provocative analysis of South African children's literature during the key decade around Nelson Mandela's release from prison Their research demonstrates that the literature of this period was derived from the same milieu intellectual educational religious political and economic that brought white supremacy to South Africa during colonial times This volume is a signal contribution to the study of children's literature and its relation to racism and social conditions

Caribbean Children's Literature, Volume 1 Betsy Nies, Melissa García Vega, 2023-05-18 Contributions by María V Acevedo Aquino Consuella Bennett Florencia V Cornet Stacy Ann Creech Zeila Frade Melissa García Vega Ann González Louise Hardwick Barbara Lalla Megan Jeanette Myers Betsy Nies Karen Sanderson Cole Karen Sands O'Connor Geraldine Elizabeth Skeete and Aisha T Spencer The world of Caribbean children's literature finds its roots in folktales and storytelling As countries distanced themselves from former colonial powers post 1950s the field has taken a new turn that emerges not just from writers within the region but also from those of its diaspora Rich in language diversity and history contemporary Caribbean children's literature offers a window into the ongoing representations of not only local realities but also the fantasies that structure the genre itself Young adult literature entered the region in the 1970s offering much needed representations of teenage voices and concerns With the growth of local competitions and publishing awards the genre has gained momentum providing a new field of scholarly analyses Similarly the field of picture books has also deepened Caribbean Children's Literature Volume 1 History Pedagogy and Publishing includes general coverage of children's literary history in the regions where the four major colonial powers have left their imprint addresses intersections between pedagogy and children's literature in the Anglophone Caribbean explores the challenges of producing and publishing picture books and engages with local authors familiar with the terrain Local writers come together to discuss writerly concerns and publishing challenges In new interviews conducted for this volume international authors Edwidge Danticat Junot Diaz and Olive Senior discuss their transition from writing for adults to creating picture books for children Children's Literature Barbara Stoodt,1996 Keywords for Children's Literature, Second Edition Philip Nel,Lissa Paul,Nina Christensen,2021-01-12 Introduces key terms global concepts debates and histories for Children s Literature in an updated edition Over the past decade there has been a proliferation of exciting new work across many areas of children s literature and culture Mapping this vibrant scholarship the Second Edition of Keywords for Children s Literature presents original essays on essential terms and concepts in the field Covering ideas from Aesthetics to Voice an impressive multidisciplinary cast of scholars explores and expands on the vocabulary central to the study of children s literature The second edition of this Keywords volume goes beyond disciplinary and national boundaries Across fifty nine print essays and nineteen online essays it includes contributors from twelve countries and an international advisory board from over a dozen more The fully revised and updated selection of critical writing more than half of the essays are new to this edition reflects an intentionally multinational perspective taking into account non English traditions and what childhood looks like in an age of globalization All authors trace their keyword s uses and meanings from translation to poetry taboo to diversity and trauma to nostalgia the book s scope clarity and interdisciplinary play between concepts make this new edition of Keywords for Children s Literature essential reading for scholars and students alike The Reality - Fiction Opposition in Children's Literature Adrian Zagler,2011 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2010 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 University of Graz language English abstract Since the 1970s scholarly interest in children s literature has grown and numerous studies looking into the complexity and thematic and structural depth of the texts have been published Simultaneously the notion of metareferentiality has sparked interest among scholars from various disciplines Metareferentiality though not unique to the twentieth and the twenty first centuries is said to be one of the key cultural phenomena of our time And yet these two fields of interest namely children s literature and metareferentiality have only very rarely been studied in the same context Metareferential elements in children s books are often seen as phenomena of dream worlds Thus they allow a traditional non critical reading in which the metareferential elements do not necessarily trigger medial awareness in the readers but can be explained logically and within the framework of the represented story worlds Consequently the epistemological status of reality would not be threatened by these texts However as this paper aims to prove such a reading for instance of the Alice stories Die Unendliche Geschichte and The Book of Lost Things although undeniably possible falls short of the true scope of the texts As will be shown all four books address the question of the status of fiction with reference to its opposition to reality albeit in different ways In their treatment of the subject they are clearly metafictional texts with epistemological and ontological concerns that require experienced readers to fully grasp their messages Nevertheless they are still publicly perceived as children s literature and are enjoyed by children and adults alike After some general remarks on the genre of children s literature and on metareferentiality this paper focuses on a particular form of metarefere Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1905 Children's Literature Abstracts ,1973 Children's Catalog H.W. Wilson Company,1916 The 1st ed includes an index to v 28 36 of St Nicholas First Selection of Five Hundred Children's Books ,1913 Catalog and Yearbook University of Northern Colorado,1925 Masterworks of Children's Literature: The Twentieth century Francelia Butler,1986 On Children's Literature Isabelle Jan,1973 Books for Boys and Girls in the Free Public Library Newark Public Library,1923 The Academy and Literature ,1903 Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print ,1976 Chambers's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts ,1920 Canadian Children's Literature ,1994 Report Cincinnati (Ohio), Public Library,1903
