The Jane Addams Children's Book Award Susan C. Griffith, 2013-09-05 Jane Addams 1860-1935 was an inspired activist who struck at the roots of social injustice through persistent and thoughtful action advocating for reforms in sanitation housing and work conditions and child labor In 1915 Addams founded the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom WILPF and in 1931 she became the first American female recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize Eighteen years after Addams's death members of the WILPF created the Jane Addams Children's Book Award Presented annually the award honors children's books that invite readers to think deeply about peace social justice world community and equality for all races and genders The Jane Addams Children's Book Award Honoring Children's Literature for Peace and Social Justice since 1953 is the first book to examine the award as well as its winners and honor books In this volume Susan C Griffith reviews and synthesizes Addams's ideas and legacy so that her life and accomplishments can be used as a focal point for exploring issues of social justice through children's literature In addition to a history and overview of the award this work contains annotated bibliographies with thematically arranged winners and honor books bestowed in Addams's name Supporting literature study in classrooms and integrating points of reflection drawn from the activist's life The Jane Addams Children's Book Award is an invaluable resource for educators students and librarians

When Everything Feels like the Movies (Governor General's Literary Award winner, Children's Literature) Raziel Reid, 2014-11-18 Winner Governor General's Literary Award Finalist Lambda Literary Award and Ferro Grumley Award for LGBT Fiction Raziel Reid is a really extraordinary guy He's got a great thing going Anne Rice School is just like a film set there's The Crew who make things happen The Extras who fill the empty desks and The Movie Stars whom everyone wants tagged in their Facebook photos But Jude doesn't fit in He's not part of The Crew because he isn't about to do anything unless it's court appointed he's not an Extra because nothing about him is anonymous and he's not a Movie Star because even though everyone knows his name like an A-lister he isn't invited to the cool parties As the director calls action Jude is the flamer that lights the set on fire Before everything turns to ashes from the resulting inferno Jude drags his best friend Angela off the casting couch and into enough melodrama to incite the paparazzi all while trying to fend off the haters and win the heart of his favourite co-star Luke Morris It's a total train wreck But train wrecks always make the front page Raziell Reid is a graduate of the New York Film Academy He currently lives in Vancouver

Prizing Children's Literature Kenneth B. Kidd, Joseph T. Thomas Jr., 2016-11-10 Children's book awards have mushroomed since the early twentieth century and especially since the 1960s when literary prizing became a favored strategy for both commercial promotion and canon making There are over 300 awards for English language titles alone but despite the profound impact of children's book awards scholars have paid relatively little attention to them This book is the first scholarly volume devoted to the analysis of Anglophone children's book awards in historical and cultural context With attention to both political and aesthetic concerns the book offers original and diverse scholarship on prizing practices and their consequences in Australia Canada and especially the United States Contributors offer both case studies of particular awards and analysis of broader trends in literary evaluation and elevation drawing on theoretical work on canonization and cultural capital Sections interrogate the complex and often unconscious ideological work of prizing the ongoing tension between formalist awards and so-called identity based awards all the more urgent in light of the We Need Diverse Books campaign the ever morphing forms and parameters of prizing and scholarly practices of prizing Among the many awards discussed are the Pura Belpr Medal the Inky Awards the Canada Governor General Literary Award the Printz Award the Best Animated Feature Oscar the Phoenix Award and the John Newbery Medal giving due attention to prizes for fiction as well as for non-fiction poetry and film This volume will interest scholars in literary and cultural studies social history book history sociology education library and information science and anyone concerned with children's literature
