truths of our working world are loyally upheld while its hard facts are quietly but authoritatively dismissed from attention The modern child passes through the same stages as did the children of four thousand years ago He too is a poet He believes that the world about him throbs with life and is peopled with all manner of strange beautiful powerful folk who live just outside the range of his sight he too personifies light and heat and storm and wind and cold as his remote ancestors did He too lives in and through his imagination and if in later life he grows in power and becomes a creative man his achievements are the fruits of the free and vigorous life of his imagination The fairy tale belongs to the child and ought always to be within his reach not only because it is his special literary form and his nature craves it but because it is one of the most vital of the textbooks offered to him in the school of life In ultimate importance it outranks the arithmetic the grammar the geography the manuals of science for without the aid of the imagination none of these books is really comprehensible Classics included in this volume include One Eye Two Eyes Three Eyes The Magic Mirror The Enchanted Stag Hansel and Grethel The Story of Aladdin This Story of Ali Baba The Second Voyage of Sinbad the Sailor The White Cat The Golden Goose The Twelve Brothers The Fair One With the Golden Locks Tom Thumb Blue Beard Cinderella Puss In Boots The Sleeping Beauty In the Wood Jack and The Bean Stalk Forever Series Peter Haddock Limited,1996-12 A Graded List of Poems and Stories for Use in Schools ,1901
