

First Communion Classes 2016 Information and Registration

First Communion Classes help prepare 4th-6th grade students to receive the sacrament of Holy Communion at Faith Community Lutheran Church. Below are some questions to consider before registering your child(ren). Please read all of the following before registering your child.

What if I'm not Lutheran?

In this class, we teach the LC-MS Lutheran doctrine concerning Holy Communion, so this class is really designed with Lutherans in mind. The Lutheran teachings on the sacrament are different than that of Roman Catholic or other Protestant churches' teachings. If you aren't a Lutheran Christian and would simply like to find out more information about what Lutheran Christians believe and practice about this sacrament, parents and guardians are encouraged to join our "Doorway to Faith" class before registering their child(ren) in First Communion classes. Information for "Doorway to Faith" can be found through the church office at 702-921-2700.

What if I'm Lutheran, but go to a different church?

This class prepares children to receive Holy Communion at Faith Community. Although another LC-MS church's teachings are the same, your Lutheran church may have different standards for when its members can receive the sacrament. Check with your pastor to be sure this class fits with their vision of preparing children for the sacrament of Communion.

What if I'm a member of Faith Community, but I'm not a regular worship attendee?

The sacrament of Holy Communion is a gift from the Lord to His people to be received during corporate worship services alongside the family of God (the Church). If you are not in the habit of attending weekly corporate worship, this would be an opportune time to consider making weekly worship a part of your family's spiritual growth so that you can receive the benefit of the sacrament as well as the other aspects of worshiping the Lord on a weekly basis.

So what will we do in the classes?

Basically, you'll learn where the sacrament of Holy Communion came from, why we do it, and how we do it. We'll package it in a way that's easy to understand for young people (and parents, too!), and give you some ways to continue the conversation at home.

Do I need to attend all the classes?

There are only six classes (plus First Communion Sunday practice), so it's important to attend all six. If you have to miss one, it's not such a big deal, but you'll need to catch up; any more than that, we encourage you to consider waiting until the next year.

Can a student start after 4th grade?

Absolutely! As a matter of fact, participation in First Communion classes needs to be based on the readiness of the student. Some kids are ready to learn about and receive the sacrament as a 4th grader; others show readiness at an older age. (Some even wait until they go through the confirmation program as a junior higher!). As a parent, you need to wisely determine when your child is spiritually ready for this important faith event. Please keep in mind that as a policy, we do not accept students in this program earlier than 4th grade.
