Learning Through Play in the Primary School Louise Paatsch, Siobhan Casey, Amity Green, Karen Stagnitti, 2023-09-08 Drawing on research to inform practice this book is written for teachers and school leaders looking for guidance on how to successfully implement a play based curriculum in the early years of primary school Learning Through Play in the Primary School unpacks the why and the how of embedding play based pedagogies in the first three years of school The book is divided into two sections the first drawing on the latest research to outline the importance of play in a child's development and emotional engagement in learning The second section provides practical support and examples for how to embed play in a school curriculum to enhance young children's learning. The practical section covers setting up an environment for guided play demonstrating how to assess learning from play-based activities and how to report on outcomes supported by checklists, vignettes, and case studies. Written to facilitate the implementation of play-based learning in the primary school years, this book will be an essential guide for pre- and in-service teachers and school leaders. American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977. R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1978. Your Child's Vision Richard S. Kavner, 1985. Making Schools Work Kathy Hirsh-Pasek, Roberta Michnick Golinkoff, Kimberly Nesbitt, Carol Lautenbach, Elias Blinkoff, Ginger Fifer, 2022. If we teach in the way that human brains learn, both students and their teachers will thrive. This book aligns evidence from the learning sciences on how and what students need to learn with classroom practice, pre-K-12. It demonstrates with hands-on examples how a change in educational mindset rather than in curriculum can improve student outcomes on both standardized tests and a breadth of 21st-century skills. Written collectively by classroom teachers, administrators, parents, and learning scientists, this book shows readers how to co-construct and reimagine an optimal educational system. Making Schools Work offers three case studies of schools, including a statewide system that are all realizing a 6 Cs approach to learning: focused on collaboration, communication, content, critical thinking, creative innovation, and confidence. The text documents the ever-evolving implementation process as well as outcomes and the ongoing work of stakeholders. Readers can use this resource to create an education for all children that is culturally responsive, inclusive, effective, and fun. Book Features Helps educators teach in the way that human minds learn. Jointly written in accessible language by teachers, administrators, parents, and learning scientists. Offers hands-on ways to reimagine classrooms without investing in new curricula. Puts teachers in the driver's seat, reminding them of why they teach. Provides culturally responsive, inclusive, effective, and fun strategies. Offers children the possibility of learning the skills they will need for 21st-century skills success. Most of us agree that it is critical at this moment in time to reimagine what school could be. This reimagining must be informed by the best available science and built on current educational wisdom found in our schools. This book does just that and makes clear that more playful learning across the K-12 school system would be the most natural way to help all students learn the 21st-century knowledge and skills they need in life. From the Foreword by Pasi Sahlberg, author of Finnish Lessons 3.0: What Can the World Learn from Educational Change in Finland and professor of education, Southern Cross University, Lismore, Australia. One Step at a Time Barbara Scheiber, 1981. The Library Journal Book Review, 1977. Child Life, 1899. First Steps in Violin Playing (the Child Violinist) Edith Lynwood Winn, 1924. Parenting in 1976 Southwest Educational Development Laboratory. This book applies the principles of Friedrich Froebel (1782-1852) to infant, toddler care and education today in England, the USA, New Zealand and Hong Kong The book contributes to critical debates on the application of Froebelian principles including unity and connectedness play nature and creativity and makes recommendations for practice in infant toddler education and care settings in diverse cultural contexts The authors present new research from ethnographic studies carried out in the four countries which investigate pedagogies of care with one year olds in infant toddler settings To avoid perpetuating a universal approach the book presents multiple perspectives based on the diverse cultures across the four countries Throughout the book connections are made between Froebelian principles infant toddler pedagogy and early learning Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1985 Proceedings ,1978 Kindergarten Primary Magazine ,1921
