Chill Out Richard Craze, 2001 Chill Out contains 100 original and creative ways to relax through a variety of activities some physical some psychological and some practical allowing the reader to tailor the technique to his or her mood Some activities are bite sized quick fix solutions while others are more absorbing and demand a higher level of involvement This book suggests ways to relax and explores the deeper questions of why we need to relax Illustrations The Museum Accessibility Spectrum Alison F. Eardley, Vanessa E. Jones, 2025-01-16 The Museum Accessibility Spectrum engages with discussions around access to museums and argues that what is impairing the progress of museums towards inclusion is the current ableist model of access Drawing on contributors from international museum researchers practitioners artists and activists this volume challenges the notion of the core able museum visitor and instead proposes all individuals are positioned on a multidimensional Accessibility Spectrum which incorporates intersecting physical sensory neurodivergent and social and cultural dimensions It explores the ways in which access provisions designed to enhance the experience of a minority can enhance the museum experience for all visitors A constructively critical approach is taken to practice based chapters using case studies and approaches from around the globe split into three main sections Within the Disability Gain section the authors consider the benefits of inclusive design perspectives and practice for all visitors to the museum sector The Social and Cultural Inclusion section examines ways in which museums have broadened representation and participation to better serve audiences who have been excluded or underrepresented by the museums Finally the Agents of Social Change section considers how with this work museums are challenging systemic biases and exclusions The international cross disciplinary contributions in this volume are driven by research informed practice and will transform existing thinking to change future practice within the museum sector by challenging this ableist bias This book will be of interest and importance not only to museum practitioners and researchers but also to readers with an interest in cultural studies critical disability studies translation studies and inclusive and universal design The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
