identity for millennia Beginning with the waning years of the Qing dynasty Dillon compellingly recounts the 19th century period of national humiliation when China became a virtual colony of the Western powers and Japan Nationalists brought down the humbled Celestial Empire in 1911 ushering in a long period of discord from which Mao s Chinese Communist Party emerged bloodily triumphant in 1949 In a society still overwhelmingly agricultural Mao s colossal structural changes propelled China to superpower status but at an enormous human toll By Mao s death in 1976 programmes like the Great Leap Forward and the Cultural Revolution had once more brought China to the brink of total collapse It was at this moment that against all odds China recast itself yet again this time under the visionary leadership of Deng Xiaoping as a nation of Socialism with Chinese characteristics Informed by both ancient and contemporary values China has entered the new century on a powerful footing commanding unprecedented financial and industrial resources prepared to meet the West on its own terms Michael Dillon s China A Modern History is essential reading for those interested in the past present and future course of one of the world s great nations Clearly and compellingly written this will stand as the best introduction to this spectacular and still unfinished story
