The Middle Kingdom Under the Big Sky Mark T. Johnson,2022-05 2023 Caroline Bancroft History Prize from the Denver Public Library 2023 WHA W Turrentine Jackson Award From the earliest days of non Native settlement of Montana when Chinese immigrants made up more than 10 percent of the territory s population Chinese pioneers played a key role in the region s development But this population so crucial to Montana s history remains underrepresented in historical accounts and popular attention to the Chinese in Montana tends to focus on sensational elements exoticizing Chinese Montanans and distancing their lived experiences from our modern understanding The Middle Kingdom under the Big Sky seeks to recover the stories of Montana s Chinese population in their own words and deepen understanding of Chinese experiences in Montana by using a global lens Mark T Johnson has mined several large collections of primary documents left by Chinese pioneers translated into English here for the first time These collections spanning the 1880s through the 1950s provide insight into the pressures the Chinese community faced from family members back in China and from non Chinese Montanans as economic and cultural disturbances complicated acceptance of Chinese residents in the state Through their own voices Johnson reveals the agency of Chinese Montanans in the history of the American West and China      There are No Chinamen in Singapore Ralph P. Modder,2000      Legal Histories of the British Empire Shaunnagh Dorsett,John McLaren,2014-04-24 This book is a major contribution to our understanding of the role played by law s in the British Empire Using a variety of interdisciplinary approaches the authors provide in depth analyses which shine new light on the role of law in creating the people and places of the British Empire Ranging from the United States through Calcutta across Australasia to the Gold Coast these essays seek to investigate law s central place in the British Empire and the role of its agents in embedding British rule and culture in colonial territories One of the first collections to provide a sustained engagement with the legal histories of the British Empire in particular beyond the settler colonies this work aims to encourage further scholarship and new approaches to the writing of the histories of that Empire Legal Histories of the British Empire Laws Engagements and Legacies will be of value not only to legal scholars and graduate students but of interest to all of those who want to know more about the laws in and of the British Empire      Black & White Budget ,1900      Baptist Missionary

The Lost Girl Liz Harris,2016-08-08 In this moving romantic novel a 19th century culture clash on the Wyoming prairie threatens to derail a young love as boundless as the American West The Historical Novels Review Wyoming 1870s Joe Walker is just a child himself when he finds an orphaned Chinese baby girl in the wilds outside of a mining town He brings her home to his family who reluctantly take her in but Charity grows up never feeling accepted among either the Asian immigrants or the whites In these two worlds divided by prejudice her only true and unconditional bond is with her protective rescuer Joe until Charity is drawn to a devoted young man who offers her something she s never had a chance to really belong As Charity s relationship with Chen Fai deepens Joe is forced to confront his impermissible feelings for a girl he has come to love But as the racial tensions in Wyoming Territory ignite Charity is torn between two men and two cultures between the forbidden and the safe between loyalty and desire Only by following her heart can Charity find her future and a place to finally call home

An Australian in China George Ernest Morrison,1902 Dawn on the hills of T'ang; or, China as a mission field. (Student volunteer missionary union). Harlan Page Beach,1898 The Chronicle of the London Missionary Society ,1901 Chinaman's Chance No-yong Park,1943 Memoirs of a Bangkok Warrior Dean Barrett,1999 Declassified Yes Americans did fight another secret war in Asia Now at last the long suppressed details of that controversial war can be told The setting is Bangkok Thailand The time is the mid sixties And the events are incredible Join Whore House Charlie Sgt Jigaboo Bumbles Blinky Agent Orange Corporal Napalm Hogbody Butterball Good Pork Betty the Betel Nut Queen Noy the Laundry Girl Corporal Comatose Doc Spitz and Lieutenant Pearshape in the wackiest adventures of the Vietnam or any other war era Missionary Magazine and Chronicle London Missionary Society,1901 New China's Long March from Servility to Freedom Wei-Bin Zhang,2007 This book is part of a broad study on Confucianism and its implications for the modernisation of East Asia The Opium War symbolises the beginning of foreign humiliations and the Cultural Revolution represents the apex of self oppression self intimidation and self humiliations China vainly strove under the guns of many countries until the end of World War II and since then has suffered from many civil wars Immediately after New China was established in 1949 the CCP closed the door to the outside democratic world thus creating self humiliations Since economic reform was launched in 1978 New China has been developed from the verge of nationwide self murder to the track for prosperity and freedom The long march from self destructiveness to social and economic progresses raises many challenging questions about human survival and processes Philosophical historical political and economic perspectives are discussed An open and enriching New China could dramatically affect the world in the not so distant future This book describes the history of New China as a dynamic process from the pole of central planning anti Americanism and anti Confucianism towards market economy Americanisation and modernising Confucian manifestations Writing the Hyphen Susanne Hilf,2000 This study explores how issues of interculturalism and hybridity are dealt with in early and contemporary Chinese Canadian literature The book opens with an overview of the sociohistorical context which shaped many of the recurring topics and tropes in Chinese Canadian writing Drawing on select post colonial theories as well as on the idea of writing culture the subsequent discussion of poems and short stories published in the 1970s and 1980s reveals that the authors of earlier works sought to define a distinct and ethnoculturally specific collective identity While dualisms such as Asian Canadian or Us Them form the basis of identity formation in these earlier writings the author argues that the more recent and stylistically hybrid prose works by Sky Lee Larissa Lai and Fred Wah undermine such dualisms illustrating a more playful and less programmatic use of cultural overlapping
