Chinas Emerging Private Enterprises Prospects For The New Century:

China's Emerging Private Enterprises Neil F. Gregory, Stoyan Tenev, Dileep M. Wagle, 2000-01-01 This report aims to take stock of the domestic private sector in China which has emerged over the past twenty years It is based on surveys and interviews carried out in four locations in China where private sector development is relatively advanced These studies were supplemented by discussions with entrepreneurs industry associations and government officials The report focuses on three main themes the structure of private enterprises the enabling environment for their development and access to financing For each of these areas the report presents an analysis of constraints on private sector development and outlines an agenda for addressing these constraints The report recommends that in order to encourage continuing private sector growth the government should create a level playing field for all enterprises by intervening less and focusing on improved commercial legislation and more open markets Financial institutions must develop to serve the private sector and private enterprises need to mature and improve their corporate governance in order to derive the most benefit from improvements in the business environment

The Governance Structures of Chinese Firms Chun Liao, 2021-06-01 This book systematically defines and analyses the rise of China's innovation system and Chinese corporate governance model China's achievement in artificial intelligence and high technology innovation has attracted the global attention The country's innovation system and Chinese model arose during the period between the mid 1990s and the first decade of 21 century making it one of the leading countries in those fields This revised and expanded edition examines the Chinese innovation business model based on the basic concept of firm's governance structure It builds upon five dimensions ownership and shareholding structure interrelation between employer and employee interrelation between firms financing pattern and performance criteria and innovation system and core competitiveness This book also compares China's innovation system with the American model and with the European model exemplified by Germany

China's Employment Challenges and Strategies After the WTO Accession Douglas Zhihua Zeng, 2005 Although China has made impressive progress in economic development and improving social well being it is facing many daunting challenges while transforming toward a knowledge and service based economy and further opening up to international competition after its WTO accession in the context of knowledge revolution One of the biggest challenges is how to create 100 300 million new jobs in the coming decade to absorb the millions of laid offs rural emigrants and newly added labor force China has been successful in building high technology parks and information and communications technology ICT industries but they are limited in terms of employment generation while most of the traditional labor intensive industries are losing competitiveness due to low productivity To combat the unprecedented employment challenge China must implement a systemic and sustained strategy Cover verso
