Chinas Intellectuals:

China's Intellectuals and the State Merle Goldman, Timothy Cheek, Carol Lee Hamrin, 1987 This book examines the troubled and changing relationship today's intellectuals in China have to the state It focuses primarily on the post Mao years when bitter memories of the Cultural Revolution and China's renewed quest for modernization have at times allowed intellectuals increased leeway in expression and more influence in policy making

The Chinese Enlightenment Vera Schwarcz, 1986 It is widely accepted both inside China and in the West that contemporary Chinese history begins with the May Fourth Movement Vera Schwarcz's imaginative new study provides China scholars and historians with an analysis of what makes that event a turning point in the intellectual spiritual cultural and political life of twentieth century China

China's Intellectuals Merle Goldman, 1981 Suppression and thaw have marked the course of communism in China Merle Goldman traces that shifting pattern over the last decades of Mao's regime linking it to the unique role of the intellectual in government Her engrossing account of the relations between the intellectuals and the governing elites provides a map of understanding to some recent events in the turbulent history of the People's Republic

Chinese Intellectuals on the World Frontier J. A. English-Lueck, 1997-05-30 This is the study of the status of intellectuals in the People's Republic of China during and after the events of Tiananmen Square Currently intellectuals find themselves on the cusp of change as the socialist state monopoly on academia scientific and technical research is yielding to market pressures Universities must be at least partially self sustaining Entrepreneurial niches outside of state control are opening for intellectuals as industry privatizes The entire society has shifted its focus from ideology to material wealth These dramatic changes have forced choices on China's thought workers English Lueck in conducting over a hundred interviews highlights the choices and constraints of nonestablishment Chinese intellectuals at the end of the 20th century as they establish a new identity for themselves and perhaps even for China

Intellectuals at a Crossroads Zhidong Hao, 2003-08-28 A survey of contemporary Chinese intellectuals

Chinese Intellectuals Between State and Market Merle Goldman, Edward Gu, 2005-08-03 This edited volume describes the intellectual world that developed in China in the last decade of the twentieth century How as China's economy changed from a centrally planned to a market one and as China opened up to the outside world and was influenced by the outside world Chinese intellectual activity became more wide ranging more independent more professionalized and more commercially oriented than ever before The future impact of this activity on Chinese civil society is discussed in the last chapter

Intellectuals in Revolutionary China, 1921-1949 Hung-yok Ip, 2004-11-23 This book originally examines how prominent communist intellectuals in China during the revolutionary period 1921 to 1940 constructed and presented identities for themselves and how they narrated their place in the revolution

Minjian Sebastian Veg, 2019-04-23 Who are the new Chinese intellectuals In the wake of the crackdown on the 1989 democracy movement and the rapid marketization of the 1990s a novel type of grassroots intellectual emerged Instead of harking back to the traditional role of the literati or pronouncing on democracy and modernity like 1980s public intellectuals they derive legitimacy from their work with the vulnerable and the marginalized often proclaiming their independence with a heavy dose of anti elitist rhetoric They are proudly minjian unofficial unaffiliated and among the people In this book Sebastian Veg explores the rise of minjian intellectuals and how they have profoundly transformed China s public culture An intellectual history of contemporary China Minjian documents how amid deep structural shifts grassroots thinker activists began to work outside academia or policy institutions in an embryonic public sphere Veg explores the work of amateur historians who question official accounts independent documentarians who let ordinary people speak for themselves and grassroots lawyers and NGO workers who spread practical knowledge Their interventions are specific rather than universal with a focus on concrete problems among disenfranchised populations such as victims of Maoism migrant workers and others without residence permits and petitioners Drawing on careful analysis of public texts by grassroots intellectuals and the networks and publics among which they circulate Minjian is a groundbreaking transdisciplinary exploration of crucial trends developing under the surface of contemporary Chinese society

Propaganda and Culture in Mao's China Timothy Cheek,1997 This biography of Deng Tuo 1912 1966 is a social history of intellectuals as agents in China s socialist revolution It places Deng Tuo s writings and ideas in the rich context of his social experience as a member of the Communist bureaucracy and as an elite artist and aesthete The tension between service to politics and service to culture was ultimately disastrous for Deng and for China s revolution his ghost haunts the halls of power in Beijing today

Intellectuals and the State in Modern China Jerome B. Grieder,1983-04 Traces the lives ad accomplishments of Chinese intellectuals from the Boxer Rebellion to the birth of the Peoples Republic and details their responses to change and tradition

Imagining the People Joshua A. Fogel,Peter Gue Zarrow,1997-10-20 Chinese mainland and Taiwan European Japanese Canadian and North American scholars address a subject of increasing interest in modern Chinese and world history the emergence of a modern citizenry While much attention has focused to date on the rise of the modern Chinese nation little or none has been directed at the important concomitant element of a politically active citizenry and what that might mean in a Chinese context After a detailed introduction by the editors on this theme in Western and East Asian theory and practice each essay examines a thinker or group of thinkers from the crucial transition period in modern China 1890 1920 and assesses their views on how China might forge a modern society with a participatory political citizenry

The Chinese Intellectual, Past and Present Gungwu Wang,1983

An Intellectual History of Modern China Merle Goldman,Leo Ou-fan Lee,2002-05-16 This book is the only comprehensive book on modern China s intellectual history
