A Modern History of China's Art Market Kejia Wu, 2023-05-08 This is the first English language account of the modern history of China's art market that explains the radical transformations from the end of the Cultural Revolution when a market for art and artifacts did not exist to today. The book is divided into three sections. Part I examines how the art market in China was suspended during the Cultural Revolution, restarted, grew, and expanded into its current scale. Part II analyzes the distinctive value system of the Chinese art market where the state-run art system, including academies, artist associations, and museums co-exist with an independent market-oriented system and traverses the most significant policies that drive decision-making and market structure. Part III explores the driving force of art creation by telling the stories of five contemporary artists across three generations. Arts and culture professionals, scholars, and students interested in Chinese art, global art markets, Chinese government policy, and China will find this to be a valuable resource. Newsletter, East Asian Art and Archaeology, 1994

Contemporary Perspectives on the Detection, Investigation and Prosecution of Art Crime Dr. Saskia Hufnagel, Professor Duncan Chappell, 2014-10-28 Art and antiquity crime has usually assumed a place of low interest and priority. That situation has now slowly begun to change on both the local and international level as criminals encouraged in part by the record sums now being paid for art treasures are now seeking to exploit the art market more systematically by means of theft, fraud, and looting. In this collection, academics and practitioners from Australasia, Europe, and North America combine to examine the challenges presented to the criminal justice system by these developments.
