The United States Catalog, 1904     Ngaio Marsh Bruce Harding, 2019-06-26 Considered one of the Queens of Crime along with such greats as Agatha Christie, Dorothy Sayers, and Margery Allingham, Ngaio Marsh (1895-1982) was a gifted writer and a celebrated author of classic British detective fiction as well as a successful theater director. Best known for the 32 detective novels she published between 1934 and 1982, she was appointed a Dame Commander of the British Empire (DBE) in 1966. Based on years of original research by the curator of the Ngaio Marsh House in Christchurch, New Zealand, this book explores the fascinating literary world of Dame Ngaio.     An Artist in Crime

Rodrigues Ottolengui, 1893     Fear and Clothing Jane Custance Baker, 2023-01-26 Through analyzing dress in detective fiction, Fear and Clothing reveals a cultural history of identity affected by the social upheaval caused by war. In-depth analysis of interwar publications by a comprehensive range of writers reveals readers' anxieties and fears about class, gender, and race and how these changed over the period. Although read and written by both men and women, detective fiction was deemed at the time to be a masculine and high-status entertainment. However, the literature demonstrates an admiration and acceptance of the woman's identity performed during the Great War and continuing throughout the interwar period as girl pal and female gentleman. In chapters that explore age, character, class, masculinity, performative womanhood, and race, Jane Custance Baker exposes how dress was a status marker to both male and female readers, made anxious by social change brought about by war. Dress in detective fiction reveals a set of signs to be read, digested, and possibly employed to model the individual reader's personal dress choices. Fear and Clothing sheds new light on dress of the period, the social and cultural environment as depicted in the popular fiction genre in the early 20th century, and is of interest to researchers and scholars within dress history, literary, and historical studies, as well as anyone who enjoys the history of detective fiction.     The United States Catalog George Flavel Danforth, Marion Effie Potter, 1900     The American Catalog, 1896     The American Catalogue, 1896
