Arts - Therapies - Communication European Arts Therapy Line Kossolapow, Sarah Scoble, 2005 Stipulation of a present actual position of Art Therapy however inevitably leads to further thoughts about ongoing development Everything required for the theoretical practical founding of a European Art Therapy as discipline still has to be done including construction of a communicative bridge to partners in other continents or countries This development work has two strands of development One follows a more theoretical direction with European Art Therapy as a research and teaching subject as an objective in view The other is directed more towards practical fieldwork which in turn can lead to the establishment of funds of experience as well as quantitative and qualitative investigations and thus to theoretical methodical statements In the contributions on hand both connections pervade Naturally the individual articles in this collection do not fully expound the volume of art therapeutic work throughout Europe but they are a source of information and inspiration for the user from theory and or practice who can then find his particular niche with his own specific interests within the cross section and subsequently continue the discourse spatially and objectively The Arts Therapies Dr Phil Jones, 2004-12-01 The Arts Therapies provides in one volume a guide to the different disciplines and their current practice and thinking It presents A clear analysis of the relationship between client therapist and art form An exploration of research practice and key contributions made to the field by practitioners internationally and within many different contexts Discussion of how the arts therapies relate to established health services The Arts Therapies A revolution in healthcare is a unique book that provides a thorough and up to date overview of the arts therapies It will prove invaluable to arts therapists health professionals and all those who wish to learn more about the field Communication in the arts therapies European Arts therapies conference, 1997 Arts - Therapies - Communication : vol.I : On the way to a communicative European arts therapy Line Kossolapow, 2001 Communication Research on Expressive Arts and Narrative as Forms of Healing Kamran Afary, Alice Marianne Fritz, 2020-09-30 Communication Research on Expressive Arts and Narrative as Forms of
