Robert Aitkin Bertram

As Space:

The Unconscious as Space Anca Carrington, 2024-06-03 The Unconscious as Space explores the experience of being and the practice of psychoanalysis by thinking of the unconscious in mathematical terms Anca Carrington introduces mathematical models of space from dimension theory to algebraic topology and knot theory and considers their immediate psychoanalytic relevance The hypothesis that the unconscious is structured like a space marked by impossibility is then examined Carrington considers the clinical implications with particular focus on the interplay between language and the unconscious as related topological spaces in which movement takes place along knot like pathways The Unconscious as Space will be of appeal to psychotherapists psychoanalysts and mental health professionals in practice and in training

The Holy Spirit as Space for the Living George C. Evans, 2023-09-08 In The Holy Spirit as Space for the Living George Evans recognizes the significance of the Spirit in pneumatology within the New Testament emphasizing the Spirit's indwelling presence as a person However Evans notes that the functional aspect of the Spirit as the presence of God is often overlooked The Spirit not only gives life ruah but also creates space for individuals to live and thrive This spatial understanding suggests that the Spirit constructs a unique space for born again believers to inhabit leading to self awareness and a transformed lifeworld Evans adopts a spatial hermeneutic drawing inspiration from Jesus's encounter with Nicodemus to explore different spatial productions and their connection to the experience of being reborn within the space of the Spirit Through this approach he develops a concept of Christian spatiality that expands our theological understanding and highlights space as a construct shaped by the Spirit By considering the role of the Spirit in creating and shaping our lived experience Evans unveils a deeper understanding of the transformative power of the Spirit and its impact on our spiritual journey
