As Far As I Remember:

As Far as I Remember Michael Kerr, 2002-06-06 This candidly written autobiography of Sir Michael Kerr chronicles the life of one of Britain's most prominent judges of the 70s and 80s from his Continental childhood up to his career in the Court of Appeal and beyond. In the first part of his memoir the author traces his family history and Germanic roots. His father Alfred Kerr was a well-known dramatic critic and essayist whose writings were widely known throughout Germany from the turn of the century and have recently seen a resurrection 50 years after his death as related in the last chapter of the book. But because of the fame of his anti-Nazi writings and broadcasts the Kerrs were forced to flee from Berlin as early as 3 March 1933 when Hitler came to power. The author and his sister Judith later to become a famous author of children's books had a relatively happy cosmopolitan childhood in Zurich, Paris, Nice and ultimately England. But their parents' lives remained on the edge of poverty and sometimes despair and there was never again a family home. The memoirs then tell of his years at Aldenham School and the beginnings of Cambridge and of his assimilation into the English way of life. They relate the story of his internment as an enemy alien in 1940 and of his subsequent release and service as a pilot in the Royal Air Force until the end of World War II. The author then returned to Cambridge to finish his law degree and was urged to go to the Bar. The later chapters of this autobiography are mainly devoted to the law. They recount the author's career as a leading commercial junior and then a silk, his initial hesitations about the Bench but ultimately culminating in his appointment as a Lord Justice of Appeal. He describes the Bar of the post-war decades and is frank about the frustrations and disappointments of his career. He also provides insights into the oddities of the English legal system but maintaining throughout his firm belief in the importance of an independent Bar.

As Far As I Remember Michael Bawtree, 2015-02-02 Michael Bawtree owes his cultured start in life to the rambling country house hotel his parents owned and managed in the 1950s. What it lacked in income it made up for in style and in the quality of the guests who included dukes and professors as well as dozens of prominent names from the arts and academia from C. S. Lewis and Iris Murdoch to Sir Adrian Boult. Unsurprisingly Michael quickly developed a talent for literature, drama and music which eventually after he had read English Language and Literature at Oxford with Christopher Ricks as his tutor took him to Canada where he embarked on a career in the theatre. As Far As I Remember is part 1 of Michael's story covering his formative years from a wartime childhood and years at a rural prep school to an education at Radley College where a close friendship with Peter Cook already on the brink of fame as a comedian and satirist helped to propel him towards a theatrical career. The story of his later life as a prominent actor, playwright and director in Canada will be told in Volume 2.
