As Fast Track Sociology:

The Political Economy of Livelihoods in Contemporary Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker, Manase Kudzai Chiweshe, Sandra Bhatasara, 2018-01-12 Since the introduction of the fast track land reform programme in 2000 Zimbabwe has undergone major economic and political shifts and these have had a profound impact on both urban and rural livelihoods This book provides rich empirical studies that examine a range of multi faceted and contested livelihoods within the context of systemic crises Taking a broad political economy approach the chapters advance a grounded and in depth understanding of emerging and shifting livelihood processes strategies and resilience that foregrounds agency at household level Highlighting an emergent scholarship amongst young black scholars in Zimbabwe and providing an understanding of how people and communities respond to socio economic challenges this book is an important read for scholars of African political economy southern African studies and livelihoods Tearing Down the Gates Peter Sacks, 2007-05-29 Publisher description

College Students' Experiences of Power and Marginality Elizabeth M. Lee, Chaise LaDousa, 2015-03-27 As scholars and administrators have sharpened their focus on higher education beyond trends in access and graduation rates for underrepresented college students there are growing calls for understanding the experiential dimensions of college life This contributed book explores what actually happens on campus as students from an increasingly wide range of backgrounds enroll and share space Chapter authors investigate how students of differing socioeconomic backgrounds genders and racial ethnic groups navigate academic institutions alongside each other Rather than treat diversity as mere difference this volume provides dynamic analyses of how students come to experience both power and marginality in their campus lives Each chapter comprises an empirical qualitative study from scholars engaged in cutting edge research about campus life This exciting book provides administrators and faculty new ways to think about students vulnerabilities and strengths
