

That my days have been a dream;
Yet if hope has flown away
In a night, or in a day,
In a vision, or in none,
Is it therefore the less gone?
All that we see or seem
Is but a dream within a dream.

I stand amid the roar
Of a surf-tormented shore,
And I hold within my hand
Grains of the golden sand—
How few! yet how they creep
Through my fingers to the deep,
While I weep—while I weep!
O God! can I not grasp
Them with a tighter clasp?
O God! can I not save
One from the pitiless wave?
Is all that we see or seem
But a dream within a dream?

As Long As Its Big A Narrative Poem

Michael Cherlin

As Long As Its Big A Narrative Poem:

As Long as It's Big John Bricuth, 2005 O for a muse of napalm Years in the making As Long As It's Big is a stunning and unique poetic achievement By turns rollicking funny and deeply moving this dramatic poem tells a tragic story the collapse of a marriage after the suicide of a child within the topsy turvy venue of a divorce court ruled by an alternately cynical and sentimental judge John Bricuth cleanly balances sensitive portrayals of painful lives with hilarity chaos and occasionally ribald caricatures Hugely entertaining and immensely readable Bricuth's verse narrative will absorb anyone seeking to unravel the truths of modern family life

In a Prominent Bar in Secaucus X. J. Kennedy, 2007-09 Kennedy has long occupied a unique place in American poetry In a Prominent Bar in Secaucus now offers the first comprehensive collection to span his entire career

The Night Guard at the Wilberforce Hotel Daniel Anderson, 2014-04-21 In his third collection of poems Daniel Anderson ponders and celebrates the images sounds and tastes of contemporary life The poems in The Night Guard at the Wilberforce Hotel navigate the evanescent boundaries between the public and the private self Daniel Anderson's settings are often social but never fail to turn inward drowning out the chatter of conversation to quietly observe the truths that we simultaneously share and withhold from one another even as we visit friends celebrate a young couple's union or eavesdrop on the conversations of others These twenty poems include meditations on teaching hungover undergraduates wine tasting among snobs and engaging the war on terror from the comfort of the suburbs They are alternately driven by ornamental language that seeks to clarify and crystallize the beauties of our common world and the poet's faith that fellowship ultimately trumps partisanship Even as they weigh and measure the darkness of the heart and the sometimes rash and stingy movements of the mind the poems refrain from pronouncing judgment on their characters As much as they ponder they also celebrate in exact careful and loving terms the haunting and bracing stimuli from which they originate

The View We're Granted Peter Filkins, 2012-08-15 These poems consider large events such as 9/11 and the Holocaust as well as everyday concerns like quilting ice skating or the beauty of a stand of sugar maples in winter Co Winner of the Sheila Motton Book Award of the New England Poetry Club In the pivotal poem Marking Time which appears almost exactly halfway through Peter Filkins's fourth collection of poetry the speaker reflects on the death of a sibling and how time is marked by our memories These memories these moments whether spent contemplating a painting by Vermeer or the simple toss of a bean bag ultimately shape who we are Yet you are with me here with me here again where neither that moon nor you exist but live tethered to this memory composed of words These are poems unafraid to be graceful and engaging They attain an assurance and stability rare in contemporary poetry while their careful balance of sadness and joy reminds the reader of the difficult negotiations we make in life

Music's Making Michael Cherlin, 2024-07-01 A personal voyage of discovery drawing on musicology literary theory Jewish studies and philosophical phenomenology As a work of musical theory or meta theory Music's Making draws extensively on work done in philosophy and literary criticism in addition to the scholarship of musicologists and music theorists Music s Making is divided into two large parts The first half develops global attitudes toward music emergence out of self and hearing through drawing on Kabbalah and other sources middle voice as discussed in philosophical phenomenology liminal space as discussed in literary theory an ethics of intersubjectivity drawing on Levinas and character canon and metaleptic transformations drawing chiefly on Harold Bloom The second half embodies a search for metaphors figurative language toward understanding music s endlessly variegated shaping of time space The musicians and scholars who inform this part of the book include Pierre Boulez Gilles Deleuze Anton Webern Morton Feldman and James Dillon The book closes with an extended inquiry into the metaphors of horizontal and vertical experience and the spiritual qualities of musical experience expressed through those metaphors

Ballyhoo Hastings Hensel,2019-04-02 A poetry collection that grapples with the tragicomic nature of language memory love work and the performative self Though at times whimsical and witty the poems in Hastings Hensel s Ballyhoo inhabit the world beyond and between the punchline In tightly controlled meditations on language s limits and its necessity as well as on the many forms that humor takes comedy laughter farce clowning parody and more Hensel navigates fine lines between joy and sadness jokes and cruelty reality and illusion and irony and sincerity Universal in scope the 47 poems in Ballyhoo are richly idiomatic and evocative They are also frequently grounded in the southern Atlantic coast with its particular ecology characters history and myth The pleasure in reading these poems comes from the original connections Hensel makes between the literary and the gritty an elegy set in a bait shop Twelfth Night s Feste delivering a monologue in a bar a villanelle about a murder on a cruise ship These intelligent insightful poems remind us of the frail but important relationships between comedy memory and identity Ballyhoo offers a sobering examination of the tragicomic nature of the world
