Pepper, 2025-10-25 John Pepper's love affair with books began when he was a child. He sought refuge and escape in books; he began to explore the world through them; he developed friendships of a sort with the authors whose writing inspired him. Over time he came to know many of his favorite authors personally. As he said later, "Reading let me know I wasn't alone." He began to write about the books he was reading many decades ago, summarizing them, calling out passages that stood out for him, and reflecting on their timeless relevance and lessons. Those summaries, captured in 100 Books That Informed and Changed My Life, are like a fireside chat with John about the books he's loved, what he learned from them, and what they still say to us today. For anyone who loves to read, 100 Books is a treasure of insight and inspiration.

Through the Air John Wise, 1873 Switzerland, and the adjacent portions of Italy, Savoy, and the Tyrol Karl Baedeker (Firm), 1903 Catalogue of an Exhibition of Objects Relating to Mount Fuji Frederick Starr, 1927 The Cambridge Companion to Science Fiction Edward James, Farah Mendlesohn, 2003-11-20 Science fiction is at the intersection of numerous fields. It is a literature which draws on popular culture and which engages in speculation about science, history, and all types of social relations. This volume brings together essays by scholars and practitioners of science fiction which look at the genre from these different angles. After an introduction to the nature of science fiction, historical chapters trace science fiction from Thomas More to more recent years, including a chapter on film and television. The second section introduces four important critical approaches to science fiction, drawing their theoretical inspiration from Marxism, postmodernism, feminism, and queer theory. The final and largest section of the book looks at various themes and sub-genres of science fiction. A number of well-known science fiction writers contribute to this volume, including Gwyneth Jones, Ken MacLeod, Brian Stableford, Andy Duncan, James Gunn, Joan Slonczewski, and Damien Broderick.
