It is hard to imagine a more needed and more useful literary reference work than this one which gives students and readers quick access to the lives and work of a wide range of notable female writers from England and the Continent from Aphra Behn to Emily Bronte from Simone de Beauvoir to Isak Dinesen from Bridget of Sweden to Hannah Arendt. Covers 1,500 years and all major genres. Going back 15 centuries, the Encyclopedia covers the authors of novels, short stories, poetry, plays, criticism, social commentary, feminist manifestos, romances, mysteries, memoirs, children's literature, biography, and other genres. In signed entries, some of which are mini-essays, experts in the field examine writers' lives and achievements, comment on individual works, place artistic efforts in historical context, provide insights and analyses, and present more information than can be easily found elsewhere without undertaking more exhaustive research. In these pages, students and readers will meet hundreds of interesting women writers who made lasting contributions to the intellectual and popular culture of their countries while often leading fascinating lives among them: AGATHA CHRISTIE who wrote her first book in response to her sister's demand for a detective story that was harder to solve than the popular fiction of her day and whose work has been translated in more languages than Shakespeare's; HILDEGARD VON BINGEN the 12th-century German mystic who wrote profusely as a prophet, a poet, a dramatist, a physician, and a political moralist, often communicated with popes and princes, and exerted a tremendous influence on the Western Europe of her time; MARY WOLLSTONECRAFT SHELLEY whose 1818
