Children's God:

God's Heart for Children Rosalind Tan, Nativity A. Petallar, Lucy Kajidori, 2022-05-31 In the New Testament Jesus is explicit in communicating God's heart for children. Yet what does it look like for that heart to encounter the contextual realities of life in the twenty-first century? This book explores the theological implications and practical realities of ministry with children in a globalized world. Affirming eight core beliefs regarding the place of children in creation—that they are created with dignity and intended to be placed in families cared for in community, advocated by society, secured in hope, affirmed in God's church, included in God's mission, and engaged in creation care—this book traces the impact of such far-reaching issues as displacement, climate change, human trafficking, persecution, and gender discrimination on childhood development. Written by over twenty contributors from around the world, each section roots its premise in contextual theology, examines the implications for praxis, provides a case study, and includes questions for discussion and reflection. Through each chapter, the conversation around childhood development is broadened, prioritizing the experiences of children and practitioners to truly reflect the realities of our changing world. This is an excellent resource for all those concerned with the current risks facing children, especially among the world's most vulnerable populations, and what best practice looks like as the people of God work to bring God's heart and hope to children in their communities and beyond.

The Children's God

David Heller, 1988-12-15 How do children imagine God? Surprisingly few researchers have asked this question. In crayon drawings, doll play, letters, and carefully designed interviews, the forty children in David Heller's study reveal a rich array of spiritual imagery. Though Heller does find some differing views attributable to age, gender, and religious background, the children were Jewish, Catholic, Protestant, and Hindu, he discovers to a surprising degree a common vision of God that cuts across ethnic and religious differences. He also considers related issues of school prayer and the psychology of religion.

Our Children's God Elizabeth M. Bruce, 1859     The Children's Church Richard Heber Newton, 1872     Welcoming Africa's children - Theological and ministry perspectives Jan Grobbelaar, Gert Breed, Stephan de Beer, Nico Koopman, Elijah Mahlangu, Malan Nel, Dirkie Smit, Pieter Verster, 2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theology from a variety of theological sub-disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic. The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field, especially as relevant to the African context. In the process, it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field. It aims to convey the importance of considering Africa's children in theologising. The different chapters represent diverse methodologies, but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa's children. The individual authors' varied theological sub-disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book. Almost all chapters are theoretical, orientated with less empirical but more qualitative research, although some of the chapters refer to empirical research that the authors have performed in the past. Most of the academic literature in the field of Child Theologies is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa s children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provides insights that are also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere Terror to the Wicked Tobey Pearl,2021-03-16 A little known moment in colonial history that changed the course of America s future A riveting account of a brutal killing an all out manhunt and the first murder trial in America set against the backdrop of the Pequot War between the Pequot tribe and the colonists of Massachusetts Bay that ended this two year war and brought about a peace that allowed the colonies to become a nation The year 1638 The setting Providence near Plymouth Colony A young Nipmuc tribesman returning home from trading beaver pelts is fatally stabbed in a robbery in the woods near Plymouth Colony by a vicious white runaway indentured servant The tribesman fighting for his life is able with his final breaths to reveal the details of the attack to Providence s governor Roger Williams A frantic manhunt by the fledgling government ensues to capture the killer and his gang now the most hunted men in the New World With their capture the two year old Plymouth Colony faces overnight its first trial a murder trial with Plymouth s governor presiding as judge and prosecutor interviewing witnesses and defendants alike and Myles Standish Plymouth Colony authority as overseer of the courtroom his sidearm at the ready The jury Plymouth colonists New England farmers a rude and ignorant sorte as described by former governor William Bradford white male picked from a total population of five hundred and fifty knows from past persecutions the horrors of a society without a jury system Would they be tempted to protect their own including a cold blooded murderer who was also a Pequot War veteran over the life of a tribesman who had fought in a war allied against them Tobey Pearl brings to vivid life those caught up in the drama Roger Williams founder of Plymouth Colony a self taught expert in indigenous cultures and the first investigator of the murder Myles Standish Edward Winslow a former governor of Plymouth Colony and the master of the indentured servant and accused murderer John Winthrop governor of Massachusetts Bay Colony the men on trial for the murder and the lone tribesman from the last of the Woodland American Indians whose life was brutally taken from him Pearl writes of the witnesses who testified before the court and of the twelve colonists on the jury who went about their duties with grave purpose influenced by a complex mixture of Puritan religious dictates lingering medieval mores new ideals of humanism and an England still influenced by the last gasp of the English Renaissance And she shows how in the end the twelve came to render a groundbreaking judicial decision that forever set the standard for American justice An extraordinary work of

There have been all kinds of explanations suggested for what happened at Pentecost. When God first poured out his Spirit's Life upon the church, it became obvious that God was at work. Many explanations of what happened at Pentecost have reduced this spiritual phenomenon to a list of things we ought to be doing. What this approach to ministry forgets is that Pentecost was not about what we need to be doing. It is about what God was doing and what God continues to do by bringing Christ to dwell within God's people. Pentecost shows us that you can't reduce the mystery of life in the Spirit to a ministry model that can be duplicated whenever we want. If it could, wouldn't that have happened by now in America? May I ask you to consider whether any ministry program has brought lasting revival to this nation. What I believe we have seen is the hope for revival being shared and we are very passionate about that. But our passion or our programs will not produce life in us or in others. Only God can do that. What we need is a fundamental transformation of our lives and ministries. Only the Spirit of God can cause a person to be born again. John 3:5-7. Only the Spirit of God can enable a walk with Jesus. Galatians 3:1-3. And only the Spirit of God can bring about the awakening and revival that this nation needs. Acts 4:31. Pentecost teaches us that it is not about having the right model for ministry. If anyone had a model for ministry that could not be improved upon, it was Israel. God told Moses to make their ministry after the pattern he had seen on the Mountain as he met with God. Exodus 25:9-40. And while this ministry was to be preformed, it had no power to transform the lives of those believers who faithfully sought to maintain its ritual because their hearts could not be changed by the outward observance of any law. Hebrews 7:19. The author of the Epistle to the Hebrews puts it this way: This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain. Hebrews 8:5. But God found fault with the people and said: The time is coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt because they did not remain faithful to my covenant and I turned away from them. This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord: I will put my laws in their minds and write them upon their hearts. I will be their God and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach his neighbor or a man his brother saying, 'Know the Lord,' because they will all know me from the least of them to the greatest. For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more. By calling this covenant new, he has made the first one obsolete and what is obsolete and aging will soon disappear. Hebrews 8:8-13. So it is not about getting our model for ministry right or about having the right program or is it about knowing Christ and walking as he did, but only the Spirit's presence in our lives can do that. The book of Acts shows this over and over again Luke had already written the gospel named after him and he refers to this as my former book when he starts his preface in Acts Acts 1 1 He says that the gospel of Luke recorded all that Jesus began to do and to teach until the day he was taken up to heaven He then wrote Acts which recorded what Jesus continued to do and teach except now it is through the agency of the church as empowered by his Holy Spirit Luke s record is a diary of what happened as God s presence returned to earth with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the church Jesus was on the throne in glory but he
