China Question:

The China Question T. G. Otte, 2007-04-05 Between 1894 and 1905 the question of the Chinese Empire's future development its survival even was the most pressing overseas problem facing the Great Powers The frantic scramble for Africa and the often more intense drama of the Eastern Question notwithstanding it was the China Question that had the most profound implications for the Powers Since China's defeat in the 1894-5 war with Japan the country's final disintegration was widely anticipated and so was a wider Great Power conflict in the event of China's implosion At times that prospect seemed very real The prospect of China's break up and of large scale international conflict in its wake altered the configuration among the Great Powers Instability in the Far East had ramifications beyond the confines of the region and as this study shows the events of 1894-5 initiated a wider transformation of international politics No Power was more affected by these changes than Britain The China Question therefore provides an ideal prism through which to view the problems of late nineteenth century British world policy and the policy of isolationism in particular This study breaks new ground by adopting a deliberately global approach in looking at British policy emphasizing the connections between European and overseas developments and by encompassing diplomatic commercial financial and strategic factors as well as the politics of foreign policy

The China Question Dragan Pavličević, Nicole Talmacs, 2022-05-03 The China Question Contestations and Adaptations provides fresh perspectives on and empirics about China's international relations through the lens of the local and regional configurations and developments around the world While China's foreign policy strategies have received much attention and in particular the Belt and Road Initiative BRI the local contestations and or adaptations that China provokes in the countries and regions it engages remain under researched In this book a global collection of scholars examines how countries societies and individuals around the world are responding to China's rise

The China Question Ho-fung Hung, 2026-02-12 For centuries Western scholars portrayed China either as a land of superior morality economy and governance or as a formidable country of pagans that posed a global threat to Western values Idealized images of China were used to shame rulers for their incompetence while China was demonized as an external threat to cover up domestic political failures In the twentieth century the geopolitics of global capitalism have facilitated more nuanced perspectives but the diversifying of knowledge about China is far from complete In this thought provoking study Ho fung Hung finds that both Western elites and China s authoritarian regime today continue to promote many Orientalist stereotypes to advance their economic interests and political projects He shows how big picture historical social and economic changes are inextricably linked to fluctuations in the realm of ideas Only open debate can overcome extremes of fantasy and fear English Language Learning in the Asian Context 2nd Edn Paul Robertson,2005

Decolonizing Global Intelligence Pak Nung Wong,2025-07-24 From September 11 to the calamitous withdrawal of United States troops from Afghanistan Western intelligence has failed to negotiate the largest military and humanitarian crises across the world This book proposes to decolonize global intelligence from the peripheries of the Global South and put forward a new intelligence practice of inclusive statecraft It shows how dominant Western intelligence systems have failed to protect the very ideas they promised to uphold and the discrepancy between the West s Responsibility to Protect R2P liberalist doctrine and the realist on the ground complex reality as observed by the Failure to Protect F2P scholars Drawing theoretical insights and empirical both historical and contemporary materials from a wide array of case studies of Western and non Western intelligence settings and practices as well as their interactions it argues that the next generation of global security and intelligence practitioners will necessitate genuine interracial non anthropocentric and cross cultural inclusivity especially the capability to take the non Western intelligence cultures and their realist strategic thoughts seriously This book will not just add new knowledge to the larger field of security and intelligence studies but will also pioneer the relatively underdeveloped fields of comparative intelligence cultures and interstellar intelligence cultural studies It will be indispensable for policymakers bureaucrats and government officials China Monthly Review ,1924 Millard's China National Review Thomas Franklin Fairfax Millard,John Benjamin Powell,John William Powell,1920 Vol 34 includes Special tariff conference issue Nov 6 1925 The 'China Question' Dispassionately Considered, by an Asiatic - Primary Source Edition China Question,2013-10 China's New Nationalism and Other Essays Harley Farnsworth MacNair,1925

Traditional Chinese Architecture and Planning. China's perception of "Space" and "City" Felix Wernisch,2020-11-25 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject Art Architecture History of Construction grade 1 0 Vienna University of Technology course Traditional Chinese Architecture and Planning language English abstract Anywhere in the world space is the core of architecture and urban planning In China space was and perhaps still is clearly defined and distinct but at the same time boundless and seemingly empty In imperial China city planning and especially the design of the capital were highly symbolic and crucial for living in harmony with the universe A discussion The first part of the paper is concerned with explaining how space has been defined in Chinese urban planning and architecture from ancient times until today The second part of the paper is about the city its symbolism and the importance of Chinese cities in ancient years compared to today Hansard's Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament,1887 The Foreign Relations of China Mingchien Joshua Bau,1921 Discusses the work done by ranchers the kind of skills and training they need and the types of animals they frequently raise The China Weekly Review ,1930 Survey of China Mainland Press United States.
