The Global Rise of China Alvin Y. So, Yin-Wah Chu, 2015-12-08 This book sets out to unravel and explain the puzzle of the global rise of China how in just forty years China has been quickly transformed from a poor backward third world country to one of the world's core economic powerhouses Exactly how did this Chinese developmental miracle happen Focusing on the key historical turning point in China's post socialist development the book examines the complex processes through which China interacted with the global neoliberal project of the late twentieth century Alvin Y So and Yin Wah Chu reveal the centrality of the communist party state in propelling China onto the world scene and how it has successfully responded to the developmental challenges of technological upgrading environmental degradation inter state rivalry and maintaining its power This book provides a comprehensive and insightful study of the rise of China not solely from an economic social and political perspective but also from a global and historical perspective It will be an invaluable guide for students and non specialists interested in post socialist development and the global rise of China in the twenty first century

On Fiction and Being a Good Animal David P. Rando, 2024-10-31 Instead of making readers into better people what if fiction could help us to become better animals On Fiction and Being a Good Animal argues that we should abandon the persistent humanist idea that fiction can produce better people Instead we should read and value fiction according to its ability to help us to envision being better animals Inspired by Theodor W Adorno David Rando defines a good animal as one who does not live a life of domination He argues that when readers approach fiction's wishful images with non anthropocentric expectations we are rewarded by anthropocosmic visions of the world ones in which humans are in and with the world but no longer at the centre of it In compelling readings of Agustina Bazterrica T C Boyle Leonora Carrington Marian Engel Karen Joy Fowler Franz Kafka Doris Lessing Clarice Lispector Kenzaburo Oe Olga Tokarczuk and Jesmyn Ward the book explores wishful images that pertain to the nonhuman and more than human worlds Readers will discover in this fiction wishful images relating to irreconcilable minds and experiences human nonhuman family relationships love and risk across race and species and shared vulnerability communion and pleasure

Run of the Red Queen Dan Breznitz, Michael Murphree, 2011-01-01 This work closely examines the strengths and weaknesses of the Chinese economic system to discover where the nation may be headed and what the Chinese experience reveals about emerging market economies

Contemporary Chinese Novels in Translation since 1978 Yun Wu, 2024-10-14 This book aims to complement the traditional focus of translation studies which has primarily centered on translating English into other languages It presents a comprehensive analysis of the reverse translation trajectory exploring the movement of Chinese literature into the core

English literary domain The book aims to explore the ideological and sociological dynamics that underlie the translation of contemporary Chinese novels This is achieved through an examination of the translation selection process translation paratexts and the roles of translation agents Case studies are employed to illustrate specific linguistic literary and cultural challenges within translation It dissects the cultural and literary implications of translating genres such as women s writing science fiction and Internet literature The argument presented is that the translation of peripheral literature is indispensable in shaping global literature Beyond its literary implications the book identifies the political significance inherent in such reverse translation endeavors It suggests that the translation of Chinese literature holds notable political interest for the Chinese government which aims to reshape China s image and bolster the nation s soft power through literary translation This work will be an essential read to students and scholars of translation studies comparative literature and Chinese studies
